	I
Glossary Term	Definition
Academic staff	A university employee in a non-faculty position unique to higher education. These positions are either fixed term renewable or fixed term with a defined end
Accuse Stati	date.
Academic year	The academic year for official enrollment reporting is defined as Summer, Fall, and Spring. This method aligns with the schedule for reporting data to UW System Administration.
Academic term	The part of the academic year during which classes are held. UW-Whitewater offers four terms (Fall, Winterim, Spring, and Summer).
Achievement gap	Refers to the ways in which factors such as gender, race, ethnicity, socioeconomic status, familial situations, and more contribute to lower educational attainment for certain groups of students.
Admit rate	Percentage of applicants who are admitted to UW-Whitewater (calculated as number of students offered admission divided by the number of applicants).
	Students may earn an Associate of Arts degree by successfully completing a minimum of 60 units, including the 45 units of the General Education requirements (Communication & Calculation Skills and University Requirements) and the U.S. Racial/Ethnic Diversity requirement with a University of Wisconsin-Whitewater 2.00 cumulative GPA. 15 of the 60 units must be taken in coursework at UW-Whitewater. Students must be enrolled at UW-Whitewater during the Associate's degree	term in which the requirements are completed. Application for an Associate of Arts degree must be made no later than two years after the last term of attendance. An Associate of Arts degree cannot be received at the same time as a baccalaureate degree or subsequent to the awarding of a baccalaureate degree.
Bachelor's degree	Students may earn a Bachelor's degree by satisfactorily completing a minimum of 120 undergraduate units in courses numbered 100 through 400, including all university requirements, degree requirements, and departmental requirements. A minimum GPA of 2.0 or better on a 4.0 system, both overall and in the major and minor fields (if applicable) is required (certain programs require GPAs higher than 2.0).
	A framework for classifying colleges and universities in the United States. The framework primarily serves educational and research purposes, where it is often
Carnegie classification	important to identify groups of roughly comparable institutions. UW-Whitewater is currently classified as Master's Colleges and Universities: Larger programs; larger programs are those that awarded at least 200 masters-level degrees. UW-W is not classified as a Doctoral University due to currently awarding fewer than 20 doctorates.
Census date	The State of Wisconsin's official enrollment census date is the 10th day of classes.
Chariffestian of hashwatianal Day of (CID)	A taxonomic coding scheme for secondary and postsecondary instructional programs intended to facilitate the organization, collection, and reporting of
Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) codes	program data using classifications that capture the majority of reportable data. The CIP is the accepted federal government statistical standard on instructional program classifications and is used in a variety of education information surveys and databases.
Cohort	A group of students who share a common characteristic or experience within a defined time period. For IRP reports, cohorts usually consist of full-time first year
Cohort	students who begin college in a given term.
Combination re-entry/transfer student	An undergraduate student who previously enrolled at UW-Whitewater, left for one or more terms (other than Summer term), earned transferable credits from another institution of higher education, and has re-enrolled at UW-Whitewater. See Entrance status.
	A set of clearly-defined data items developed through a collaboration between publishers and higher education. These items are used to share standard
Common data set (CDS)	information about a college or university, with emphasis on undergraduate education. The CDS includes data on admissions, enrollment, retention, classes,
Control to at the st	activities, policies and costs.
Continuing student	A student who is continuing from previous term at the same program level. See Entrance status . Refers to the full-time or part-time status of an enrolled student based on the total number of course credits for which he or she is enrolled. Full-time status is
Courseload	12 or more credits for undergraduates and 9 or more credits for graduates.
Degrees awarded	The number of degrees awarded during the 12-month time period beginning July 1 of the previous calendar year and ending June 30 of the current calendar
Degree Seeking	year. A student enrolled in courses for credit and who are recognized by the institution as seeking a degree or other formal award.
DFW(I)	Final course grades of D, F, withdrawn (W), or incomplete (I).
Doctoral degree (D.B.A.)	UW-Whitewater offers a Doctorate of Business Administration (DBA) degree which is a 60 credit program offered using a cohort model where students attend
20000:0: 0:05:00 (2:2::::::::::::::::::::::::::::::::	classes one weekend each month for two years, followed by a year of dissertation work.
Education Specialist (Ed.S.)	A School Psychology post-baccalaureate degree program composed of approved units beyond the Master's degree consisting of 700-level course work in school
	Ipsychology and education.
Equity gap	psychology and education. See Achievement gap.
Equity gap
Equity gap Employee-in-training	See Achievement gap.
	See Achievement gap. A university employee holding one of the following titles: Research Associate, Postdoctoral Fellow, Postdoctoral Trainee, Postdoctoral Scholar, Research Intern,
Employee-in-training	See Achievement gap. A university employee holding one of the following titles: Research Associate, Postdoctoral Fellow, Postdoctoral Trainee, Postdoctoral Scholar, Research Intern, Postgraduate Trainee, Intern (Non-Physician), or Graduate Intern/Trainee. Persons holding one of these titles are normally in the process of acquiring additional training or experience in their field of specialization. All appointments in these titles are fixed-term. The entrance, or continuing, status of the student when he/she entered the institution in a particular term (see individual entries for entrance status definitions
	See Achievement gap. A university employee holding one of the following titles: Research Associate, Postdoctoral Fellow, Postdoctoral Trainee, Postdoctoral Scholar, Research Intern, Postgraduate Trainee, Intern (Non-Physician), or Graduate Intern/Trainee. Persons holding one of these titles are normally in the process of acquiring additional training or experience in their field of specialization. All appointments in these titles are fixed-term.
Employee-in-training	See Achievement gap. A university employee holding one of the following titles: Research Associate, Postdoctoral Fellow, Postdoctoral Trainee, Postdoctoral Scholar, Research Intern, Postgraduate Trainee, Intern (Non-Physician), or Graduate Intern/Trainee. Persons holding one of these titles are normally in the process of acquiring additional training or experience in their field of specialization. All appointments in these titles are fixed-term. The entrance, or continuing, status of the student when he/she entered the institution in a particular term (see individual entries for entrance status definitions of New, Re-entry, Continuing, and Transfer student).
Employee-in-training	See Achievement gap. A university employee holding one of the following titles: Research Associate, Postdoctoral Fellow, Postdoctoral Trainee, Postdoctoral Scholar, Research Intern, Postgraduate Trainee, Intern (Non-Physician), or Graduate Intern/Trainee. Persons holding one of these titles are normally in the process of acquiring additional training or experience in their field of specialization. All appointments in these titles are fixed-term. The entrance, or continuing, status of the student when he/she entered the institution in a particular term (see individual entries for entrance status definitions of New, Re-entry, Continuing, and Transfer student). Categories developed by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) that are used to describe groups to which individuals belong, with which they identify or
Employee-in-training	See Achievement gap. A university employee holding one of the following titles: Research Associate, Postdoctoral Fellow, Postdoctoral Trainee, Postdoctoral Scholar, Research Intern, Postgraduate Trainee, Intern (Non-Physician), or Graduate Intern/Trainee. Persons holding one of these titles are normally in the process of acquiring additional training or experience in their field of specialization. All appointments in these titles are fixed-term. The entrance, or continuing, status of the student when he/she entered the institution in a particular term (see individual entries for entrance status definitions of New, Re-entry, Continuing, and Transfer student). Categories developed by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) that are used to describe groups to which individuals belong, with which they identify or belong in the eyes of the community. The categories do not denote scientific definitions of anthropological origins. The designations are used to categorize U.S.
Employee-in-training	See Achievement gap. A university employee holding one of the following titles: Research Associate, Postdoctoral Fellow, Postdoctoral Trainee, Postdoctoral Scholar, Research Intern, Postgraduate Trainee, Intern (Non-Physician), or Graduate Intern/Trainee. Persons holding one of these titles are normally in the process of acquiring additional training or experience in their field of specialization. All appointments in these titles are fixed-term. The entrance, or continuing, status of the student when he/she entered the institution in a particular term (see individual entries for entrance status definitions of New, Re-entry, Continuing, and Transfer student). Categories developed by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) that are used to describe groups to which individuals belong, with which they identify or
Employee-in-training	See Achievement gap. A university employee holding one of the following titles: Research Associate, Postdoctoral Fellow, Postdoctoral Trainee, Postdoctoral Scholar, Research Intern, Postgraduate Trainee, Intern (Non-Physician), or Graduate Intern/Trainee. Persons holding one of these titles are normally in the process of acquiring additional training or experience in their field of specialization. All appointments in these titles are fixed-term. The entrance, or continuing, status of the student when he/she entered the institution in a particular term (see individual entries for entrance status definitions of New, Re-entry, Continuing, and Transfer student). Categories developed by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) that are used to describe groups to which individuals belong, with which they identify or belong in the eyes of the community. The categories do not denote scientific definitions of anthropological origins. The designations are used to categorize U.S. citizens, resident aliens, and other eligible non-citizens. The U.S. Department of Education has provided these definitions: • Hispanic or Latino(a): A person of Cuban, Mexican, Puerto Rican, Cuban, South or Central American or other Spanish culture or origin, regardless of race. • American Indian or Alaska Native: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of North and South America (including Central America) who maintains
Employee-in-training	See Achievement gap. A university employee holding one of the following titles: Research Associate, Postdoctoral Fellow, Postdoctoral Trainee, Postdoctoral Scholar, Research Intern, Postgraduate Trainee, Intern (Non-Physician), or Graduate Intern/Trainee. Persons holding one of these titles are normally in the process of acquiring additional training or experience in their field of specialization. All appointments in these titles are fixed-term. The entrance, or continuing, status of the student when he/she entered the institution in a particular term (see individual entries for entrance status definitions of New, Re-entry, Continuing, and Transfer student). Categories developed by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) that are used to describe groups to which individuals belong, with which they identify or belong in the eyes of the community. The categories do not denote scientific definitions of anthropological origins. The designations are used to categorize U.S. citizens, resident aliens, and other eligible non-citizens. The U.S. Department of Education has provided these definitions: • Hispanic or Latino(a): A person of Cuban, Mexican, Puerto Rican, Cuban, South or Central American or other Spanish culture or origin, regardless of race. • American Indian or Alaska Native: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of North and South America (including Central America) who maintains cultural identification through tribal affiliation or community attachment.
Employee-in-training	See Achievement gap. A university employee holding one of the following titles: Research Associate, Postdoctoral Fellow, Postdoctoral Trainee, Postdoctoral Scholar, Research Intern, Postgraduate Trainee, Intern (Non-Physician), or Graduate Intern/Trainee. Persons holding one of these titles are normally in the process of acquiring additional training or experience in their field of specialization. All appointments in these titles are fixed-term. The entrance, or continuing, status of the student when he/she entered the institution in a particular term (see individual entries for entrance status definitions of New, Re-entry, Continuing, and Transfer student). Categories developed by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) that are used to describe groups to which individuals belong, with which they identify or belong in the eyes of the community. The categories do not denote scientific definitions of anthropological origins. The designations are used to categorize U.S. citizens, resident aliens, and other eligible non-citizens. The U.S. Department of Education has provided these definitions: Hispanic or Latino(a): A person of Cuban, Mexican, Puerto Rican, Cuban, South or Central American or other Spanish culture or origin, regardless of race. American Indian or Alaska Native: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of North and South America (including Central America) who maintains cultural identification through tribal affiliation or community attachment.
Employee-in-training Entrance status	See Achievement gap. A university employee holding one of the following titles: Research Associate, Postdoctoral Fellow, Postdoctoral Trainee, Postdoctoral Scholar, Research Intern, Postgraduate Trainee, Intern (Non-Physician), or Graduate Intern/Trainee. Persons holding one of these titles are normally in the process of acquiring additional training or experience in their field of specialization. All appointments in these titles are fixed-term. The entrance, or continuing, status of the student when he/she entered the institution in a particular term (see individual entries for entrance status definitions of New, Re-entry, Continuing, and Transfer student). Categories developed by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) that are used to describe groups to which individuals belong, with which they identify or belong in the eyes of the community. The categories do not denote scientific definitions of anthropological origins. The designations are used to categorize U.S. citizens, resident aliens, and other eligible non-citizens. The U.S. Department of Education has provided these definitions: • Hispanic or Latino(a): A person of Cuban, Mexican, Puerto Rican, Cuban, South or Central American or other Spanish culture or origin, regardless of race. • American Indian or Alaska Native: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of North and South America (including Central America) who maintains cultural identification through tribal affiliation or community attachment.
Employee-in-training Entrance status	See Achievement gap. A university employee holding one of the following titles: Research Associate, Postdoctoral Fellow, Postdoctoral Trainee, Postdoctoral Scholar, Research Intern, Postgraduate Trainee, Intern (Non-Physician), or Graduate Intern/Trainee. Persons holding one of these titles are normally in the process of acquiring additional training or experience in their field of specialization. All appointments in these titles are fixed-term. The entrance, or continuing, status of the student when he/she entered the institution in a particular term (see individual entries for entrance status definitions of New, Re-entry, Continuing, and Transfer student). Categories developed by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) that are used to describe groups to which individuals belong, with which they identify or belong in the eyes of the community. The categories do not denote scientific definitions of anthropological origins. The designations are used to categorize U.S. citizens, resident aliens, and other eligible non-citizens. The U.S. Department of Education has provided these definitions: Hispanic or Latino(a): A person of Cuban, Mexican, Puerto Rican, Cuban, South or Central American or other Spanish culture or origin, regardless of race. Hispanic or Latino(a): A person of Cuban, Mexican, Puerto Rican, Cuban, South or Central American or other Spanish culture or origin, regardless of race. Asian: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of North and South America (including Central America) who maintains cultural identification through tribal affiliation or community attachment. Asian: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of the Far East, Southeast Asia, or the Indian Subcontinent, including, for example, Cambodia, China, India, Japan, Korea, Malaysia, Pakistan, the Philippine Islands, Thailand and Vietnam. Black or African American: A person having origins in any of the black racial groups of Africa.
Employee-in-training Entrance status	See Achievement gap. A university employee holding one of the following titles: Research Associate, Postdoctoral Fellow, Postdoctoral Trainee, Postdoctoral Scholar, Research Intern, Postgraduate Trainee, Intern (Non-Physician), or Graduate Intern/Trainee. Persons holding one of these titles are normally in the process of acquiring additional training or experience in their field of specialization. All appointments in these titles are fixed-term. The entrance, or continuing, status of the student when he/she entered the institution in a particular term (see individual entries for entrance status definitions of New, Re-entry, Continuing, and Transfer student). Categories developed by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) that are used to describe groups to which individuals belong, with which they identify or belong in the eyes of the community. The categories do not denote scientific definitions of anthropological origins. The designations are used to categorize U.S. citizens, resident aliens, and other eligible non-citizens. The U.S. Department of Education has provided these definitions: Hispanic or Latino(a): A person of Cuban, Mexican, Puerto Rican, Cuban, South or Central American or other Spanish culture or origin, regardless of race. American Indian or Alaska Native: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of North and South America (including Central America) who maintains cultural identification through tribal affiliation or community attachment. Asian: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of the Far East, Southeast Asia, or the Indian Subcontinent, including, for example, Cambodia, China, India, Japan, Korea, Malaysia, Pakistan, the Philippine Islands, Thailand and Vietnam. Black or African American: A person having origins in any of the black racial groups of Africa. Native Hawaiian or Other Pacific Islander: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of Hawaii, Guam, Samoa or other Pacific Islands.
Employee-in-training Entrance status	See Achievement gap. A university employee holding one of the following titles: Research Associate, Postdoctoral Fellow, Postdoctoral Trainee, Postdoctoral Scholar, Research Intern, Postgraduate Trainee, Intern (Non-Physician), or Graduate Intern/Trainee. Persons holding one of these titles are normally in the process of acquiring additional training or experience in their field of specialization. All appointments in these titles are fixed-term. The entrance, or continuing, status of the student when he/she entered the institution in a particular term (see individual entries for entrance status definitions of New, Re-entry, Continuing, and Transfer student). Categories developed by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) that are used to describe groups to which individuals belong, with which they identify or belong in the eyes of the community. The categories do not denote scientific definitions of anthropological origins. The designations are used to categorize U.S. citizens, resident aliens, and other eligible non-citizens. The U.S. Department of Education has provided these definitions: Hispanic or Latino(a): A person of Cuban, Mexican, Puerto Rican, Cuban, South or Central American or other Spanish culture or origin, regardless of race. Hispanic or Latino(a): A person of Cuban, Mexican, Puerto Rican, Cuban, South or Central American or other Spanish culture or origin, regardless of race. Asian: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of North and South America (including Central America) who maintains cultural identification through tribal affiliation or community attachment. Asian: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of the Far East, Southeast Asia, or the Indian Subcontinent, including, for example, Cambodia, China, India, Japan, Korea, Malaysia, Pakistan, the Philippine Islands, Thailand and Vietnam. Black or African American: A person having origins in any of the black racial groups of Africa.
Employee-in-training Entrance status	See Achievement gap. A university employee holding one of the following titles: Research Associate, Postdoctoral Fellow, Postdoctoral Trainee, Postdoctoral Scholar, Research Intern, Postgraduate Trainee, Intern (Non-Physician), or Graduate Intern/Trainee. Persons holding one of these titles are normally in the process of acquiring additional training or experience in their field of specialization. All appointments in these titles are fixed-term. The entrance, or continuing, status of the student when he/she entered the institution in a particular term (see individual entries for entrance status definitions of New, Re-entry, Continuing, and Transfer student). Categories developed by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) that are used to describe groups to which individuals belong, with which they identify or belong in the eyes of the community. The categories do not denote scientific definitions of anthropological origins. The designations are used to categorize U.S. citizens, resident aliens, and other eligible non-citizens. The U.S. Department of Education has provided these definitions: Hispanic or Latino(a): A person of Cuban, Mexican, Puerto Rican, Cuban, South or Central American or other Spanish culture or origin, regardless of race. American Indian or Alaska Native: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of North and South America (including Central America) who maintains cultural identification through tribal affiliation or community attachment. Asian: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of the Far East, Southeast Asia, or the Indian Subcontinent, including, for example, Cambodia, China, India, Japan, Korea, Malaysia, Pakistan, the Philippine Islands, Thailand and Vietnam. Black or African American: A person having origins in any of the black racial groups of Africa. Native Hawaiian or Other Pacific Islander: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of Hawaii, Guam, Samoa or other Pacific Islands. White: A person having origins in any of the
Employee-in-training Entrance status	See Achievement gap. A university employee holding one of the following titles: Research Associate, Postdoctoral Fellow, Postdoctoral Trainee, Postdoctoral Scholar, Research Intern, Postgraduate Trainee, Intern (Non-Physician), or Graduate Intern/Trainee. Persons holding one of these titles are normally in the process of acquiring additional training or experience in their field of specialization. All appointments in these titles are fixed-term. The entrance, or continuing, status of the student when he/she entered the institution in a particular term (see individual entries for entrance status definitions of New, Re-entry, Continuing, and Transfer student). Categories developed by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) that are used to describe groups to which individuals belong, with which they identify or belong in the eyes of the community. The categories do not denote scientific definitions of anthropological origins. The designations are used to categorize U.S. citizens, resident aliens, and other eligible non-citizens. The U.S. Department of Education has provided these definitions: Hispanic or Latino(a): A person of Cuban, Mexican, Puerto Rican, Cuban, South or Central American or other Spanish culture or origin, regardless of race. American Indian or Alaska Native: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of North and South America (including Central America) who maintains cultural identification through tribal affiliation or community attachment. Asian: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of the Far East, Southeast Asia, or the Indian Subcontinent, including, for example, Cambodia, China, India, Japan, Korea, Malaysia, Pakistan, the Philippine Islands, Thailand and Vietnam. Black or African American: A person having origins in any of the black racial groups of Africa. Native Hawaiian or Other Pacific Islander: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of Europe, the Middle East, or North Africa. Nonresident alien: A person who is not a citizen
Employee-in-training Entrance status Ethnicity	See Achievement gap. A university employee holding one of the following titles: Research Associate, Postdoctoral Fellow, Postdoctoral Trainee, Postdoctoral Scholar, Research Intern, Postgraduate Trainee, Intern (Non-Physician), or Graduate Intern/Trainee. Persons holding one of these titles are normally in the process of acquiring additional training or experience in their field of specialization. All appointments in these titles are fixed-term. The entrance, or continuing, status of the student when he/she entered the institution in a particular term (see individual entries for entrance status definitions of New, Re-entry, Continuing, and Transfer student). Categories developed by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) that are used to describe groups to which individuals belong, with which they identify or belong in the eyes of the community. The categories do not denote scientific definitions of anthropological origins. The designations are used to categorize U.S. citizens, resident aliens, and other eligible non-citizens. The U.S. Department of Education has provided these definitions: * Hispanic or Latino(a): A person of Cuban, Mexican, Puerto Rican, Cuban, South or Central American or other Spanish culture or origin, regardless of race. * American Indian or Alaska Native: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of North and South America (including Central America) who maintains cultural identification through tribal affiliation or community attachment. * Asian: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of the Far East, Southeast Asia, or the Indian Subcontinent, including, for example, Cambodia, China, India, Japan, Korea, Malaysia, Pakistan, the Philippine Islands, Thailand and Vietnam. * Black or African American: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of Africa. * Native Hawaiian or Other Pacific Islander: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of Europe, the Middle East, or North Africa. * Nonresident alien: A person who is not a
Employee-in-training Entrance status	See Achievement gap. A university employee holding one of the following titles: Research Associate, Postdoctoral Fellow, Postdoctoral Trainee, Postdoctoral Scholar, Research Intern, Postgraduate Trainee, Intern (Non-Physician), or Graduate Intern/Trainee. Persons holding one of these titles are normally in the process of acquiring additional training or experience in their field of specialization. All appointments in these titles are fixed-term. The entrance, or continuing, status of the student when he/she entered the institution in a particular term (see individual entries for entrance status definitions of New, Re-entry, Continuing, and Transfer student). Categories developed by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) that are used to describe groups to which individuals belong, with which they identify or belong in the eyes of the community. The categories do not denote scientific definitions of anthropological origins. The designations are used to categorize U.S. citizens, resident aliens, and other eligible non-citizens. The U.S. Department of Education has provided these definitions: * Hispanic or Latino(a): A person of Cuban, Mexican, Puerto Rican, Cuban, South or Central American or other Spanish culture or origin, regardless of race. * American Indian or Alaska Native: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of North and South America (including Central America) who maintains cultural identification through tribal affiliation or community attachment. * Asian: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of the Far East, Southeast Asia, or the Indian Subcontinent, including, for example, Cambodia, China, India, Japan, Korea, Malaysia, Pakistan, the Philippine Islands, Thailand and Vietnam. * Black or African American: A person having origins in any of the black racial groups of Africa. * Native Hawaiian or Other Pacific Islander: A person having origins in any of the black racial groups of Africa. * Native Hawaiian or Other Pacific Islander: A person having origins i
Employee-in-training Entrance status Ethnicity Faculty	See Achievement gap. A university employee holding one of the following titles: Research Associate, Postdoctoral Fellow, Postdoctoral Trainee, Postdoctoral Scholar, Research Intern, Postgraduate Trainee, Intern (Non-Physician), or Graduate Intern/Trainee. Persons holding one of these titles are normally in the process of acquiring additional training or experience in their field of specialization. All appointments in these titles are fixed-term. The entrance, or continuing, status of the student when he/she entered the institution in a particular term (see individual entries for entrance status definitions of New, Re-entry, Continuing, and Transfer student). Categories developed by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) that are used to describe groups to which individuals belong, with which they identify or belong in the eyes of the community. The categories do not denote scientific definitions of anthropological origins. The designations are used to categorize U.S. citizens, resident aliens, and other eligible non-citizens. The U.S. Department of Education has provided these definitions: * Hispanic or Latino(a): A person of Cuban, Mexican, Puerto Rican, Cuban, South or Central American or other Spanish culture or origin, regardless of race. * American Indian or Alaska Native: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of North and South America (including Central America) who maintains cultural identification through tribal affiliation or community attachment. * Asian: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of the Far East, Southeast Asia, or the Indian Subcontinent, including, for example, Cambodia, China, India, Japan, Korea, Malaysia, Pakistan, the Philippine Islands, Thailand and Vietnam. * Black or African American: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of Africa. * Native Hawaiian or Other Pacific Islander: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of Europe, the Middle East, or North Africa. * Nonresident alien: A person who is not a
Employee-in-training Entrance status Ethnicity	See Achievement gap. A university employee holding one of the following titles: Research Associate, Postdoctoral Fellow, Postdoctoral Trainee, Postdoctoral Scholar, Research Intern, Postgraduate Trainee, Intern (Non-Physician), or Graduate Intern/Trainee. Persons holding one of these titles are normally in the process of acquiring additional training or experience in their field of specialization. All appointments in these titles are fixed-term. The entrance, or continuing, status of the student when he/she entered the institution in a particular term (see individual entries for entrance status definitions of New, Re-entry, Continuing, and Transfer student). Categories developed by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) that are used to describe groups to which individuals belong, with which they identify or belong in the eyes of the community. The categories do not denote scientific definitions of anthropological origins. The designations are used to categorize U.S. citizens, resident aliens, and other eligible non-citizens. The U.S. Department of Education has provided these definitions: Hispanic or Latino(a): A person of Cuban, Mexican, Puerto Rican, Cuban, South or Central American or other Spanish culture or origin, regardless of race. American Indian or Alaska Native: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of North and South America (including Central America) who maintains cultural identification through tribal affiliation or community attachment. Asian: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of the Far East, Southeast Asia, or the Indian Subcontinent, including, for example, Cambodia, China, India, Japan, Korea, Malaysia, Pakistan, the Philippine Islands, Thailand and Vietnam. Black or African American: A person having origins in any of the black racial groups of Africa. Native Hawaiian or Other Pacific Islander: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of Hawaii, Guam, Samoa or other Pacific Islands. White: A person having origins in any of the
Employee-in-training Entrance status Ethnicity Faculty Federal (un)subsidized loan	See Achievement gap. A university employee holding one of the following titles: Research Associate, Postdoctoral Fellow, Postdoctoral Trainee, Postdoctoral Scholar, Research Intern, Postgraduate Trainee, Intern (Non-Physician), or Graduate Intern/Trainee. Persons holding one of these titles are normally in the process of acquiring additional training or experience in their field of specialization. All appointments in these titles are fixed-term. The entrance, or continuing, status of the student when he/she entered the institution in a particular term (see individual entries for entrance status definitions of New, Re-entry, Continuing, and Transfer student). Categories developed by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) that are used to describe groups to which individuals belong, with which they identify or belong in the eyes of the community. The categories do not denote scientific definitions of anthropological origins. The designations are used to categorize U.S. citizens, resident allens, and other eligible non-citizens. The U.S. Department of Education has provided these definitions: Hispanic or Latino(a): A person of Cuban, Mexican, Puerto Rican, Cuban, South or Central American or other Spanish culture or origin, regardless of race. A merican Indian or Alaska Native: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of North and South America (including Central America) who maintains cultural identification through trial affiliation or community attachment. Asian: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of North and South America (including, for example, Cambodia, China, India, Japan, Korea, Malaysia, Pakistan, the Philippine Islands, Thailand and Vietnam. Black or African American: A person having origins in any of the bright acid groups of Africa. Native Hawaiian or Other Pacific Islander: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of Hawaii, Guam, Samoa or other Pacific Islands. White: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of Europe, the Mi
Employee-in-training Entrance status Ethnicity Faculty	See Achievement gap. A university employee holding one of the following titles: Research Associate, Postdoctoral Fellow, Postdoctoral Trainee, Postdoctoral Scholar, Research Intern, Postgraduate Trainee, Intern (Non-Physician), or Graduate Intern/Trainee. Persons holding one of these titles are normally in the process of acquiring additional training or experience in their field of specialization. All appointments in these titles are fixed-term. The entrance, or continuing, status of the student when he/she entered the institution in a particular term (see individual entries for entrance status definitions of New, Re-entry, Continuing, and Transfer student). Categories developed by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) that are used to describe groups to which individuals belong, with which they identify or belong in the eyes of the community. The categories do not denote scientific definitions of anthropological origins. The designations are used to categorize U.S. citizens, resident aliens, and other eligible non-citizens. The U.S. Department of Education has provided these definitions: Hispanic or Latino(a): A person of Cuban, Mexican, Puerto Rican, Cuban, South or Central American or other Spanish culture or origin, regardless of race. American Indian or Alaska Native: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of North and South America (including Central America) who maintains cultural identification through tribal affiliation or community attachment. Asian: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of the Far East, Southeast Asia, or the Indian Subcontinent, including, for example, Cambodia, China, India, Japan, Korea, Malaysia, Pakistan, the Philippine Islands, Thailand and Vitenam. Black or African American: A person having origins in any of the black racial groups of Africa. Native Hawaiian or Other Pacific Islander: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of Hawaii, Guam, Samoa or other Pacific Islands. White: A person having origins in any of the
Employee-in-training Entrance status Ethnicity Faculty Federal (un)subsidized loan First-generation student	A university employee holding one of the following titles: Research Associate, Postdoctoral Fellow, Postdoctoral Trainee, Postdoctoral Scholar, Research Intern, Postgraduate Trainee, Intern (Non-Physician), or Graduate Intern/Trainee. Persons holding one of these titles are normally in the process of acquiring additional training or experience in their field of specialization. All appointments in these titles are fixed-term. The entrance, or continuing, status of the student when he/she entered the institution in a particular term (see individual entries for entrance status definitions of New, Re-entry, Continuing, and Transfer student). Categories developed by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) that are used to describe groups to which individuals belong, with which they identify or belong in the eyes of the community. The categories do not denote scientific definitions of anthropological origins. The designations are used to categorize U.S. citizens, resident aliens, and other eligible non-citizens. The U.S. Department of Education has provided these definitions: + Hispanic or Latino(a): A person of Cuban, Mexican, Puerto Rican, Cuban, South or Central American or berapants culture or origin, regardless of race. * American Indian or Alaska Native: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of North and South America (including Central America) who maintains cultural Identification through tribal affiliation or community attachment. * A sian: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of the Far East, Southeast Asia, or the Indian Subcontinent, including, for example, Cambodia, China, India, Japan, Korea, Malaysia, Pakistan, the Philippine Islands, Thailand and Vietnam. * Black or African American: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of Hawaiian or Other Pacific Islander: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of Heroacca. * Notice Hawaiian or Other Pacific Islander: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of Europe, the Mi
Employee-in-training Entrance status Ethnicity Faculty Federal (un)subsidized loan	See Achievement gap. A university employee holding one of the following titles: Research Associate, Postdoctoral Fellow, Postdoctoral Trainee, Postdoctoral Scholar, Research Intern, Postgraduate Trainee, Intern (Non-Physician), or Graduate Intern/Trainee. Persons holding one of these titles are normally in the process of acquiring additional training or experience in their field of specialization. All appointments in these titles are fixed-term. The entrance, or continuing, status of the student when he/she entered the institution in a particular term (see individual entries for entrance status definitions of New, Re-entry, Continuing, and Transfer student). Categories developed by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) that are used to describe groups to which individuals belong, with which they identify or belong in the eyes of the community. The categories do not denote scientific definitions of anthropological origins. The designations are used to categorize U.S. citizens, resident aliens, and other eligible non-citizens. The U.S. Department of Education has provided these definitions: Hispanic or Latino(a): A person of Cuban, Mexican, Puerto Rican, Cuban, South or Central American or other Spanish culture or origin, regardless of race. American Indian or Alaska Native: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of North and South America (including Central America) who maintains cultural identification through tribal affiliation or community attachment. Asian: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of the Far East, Southeast Asia, or the Indian Subcontinent, including, for example, Cambodia, China, India, Japan, Korea, Malaysia, Pakistan, the Philippine Islands, Thailand and Vitenam. Black or African American: A person having origins in any of the black racial groups of Africa. Native Hawaiian or Other Pacific Islander: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of Hawaii, Guam, Samoa or other Pacific Islands. White: A person having origins in any of the

Contraction (TT) compropries If the expendent (TT) and extractive of the contract of the cont	Freshman	A student who has completed 0-23.9 credits.
An exposurement plant of the second plant of t
of the part came environment. The full-time expansioned of the part of the environment of the part	Full-time equivalent (FTE) employee	FTE; a position budgeted for 40 hours in a bi-weekly pay period would be .5 FTE.
instruction (included recording in not or more credit in a semicotor credit in the processor of the control of	Full-time equivalent (FTE) student	and level of student. A common definition of FTE enrollment includes all full-time students plus one-third of the total number of part-time students (IPEDS definition), but FTE calculations can also be based on credit hours taken. UW System calculates FTE as the sum of credits divided by 15, 12, or 7, depending on
A student sealors A student sealors provided and groups of student, groups one of students on a power calculation and the students are reduced on the students are reduced as reduced on the students are reduced as reduced on the students are reduced as redu	Full-time student distance for the purpose of along classes for concinence. The current of advantage of solutions in an approximate of the purpose of solution in a page of solutions in a page of solut	Gender includes the measuring after temp, fair temporary goodstand rate. New country after temp fair temporary decides counted only once during the reporting partied, regarded or when the student entelled. Alticular to fair the country at the country at the Country and the Whitemaker and finds. Country computer, their home compose are when the student entelled. Alticular to fair the country at the	Graduate student	student for the purpose of taking classes for enrichment.
A student with the course at both of the Workerwitzer and foot. Courty caregouse, here home compute remove the caregous at which the student application of courted. For reporting purposes, an undisplicated headcount of students utilizes the home institution model for assigning students to a grimmary caregous process. A student of Scully members who derestlines with a caregivent only of students utilizes the home institution and only of the students of students of the students of students of the students of the students of students of the students of students of the s	Graduation rate spieled and evailed. For reporting purposes, an undeplicated henderents staffer to make a spieled and evailed. For reporting purposes, an undeplicated henderents staff and staff or the staff remembers who identifies with a rate/ethnicity of American Indian, Native American, Alpsian Rative, Native Hawaiian or Facific Indianal Processing Staff (Indiana) (I	Headcount (unduplicated)
International bandemic steff Accidence call members with treathing regularibilities. International (convesident alien) student PEDS (Programs of the treatment production that Symmy is advanced and excident alien) student in production of the programs of the programs of the programs of the programs of the programs. The religie Programs of the programs of the programs of the programs of the programs. The religie Programs of the programs. The religie Programs of the program	Home institution model	applied and enrolled. For reporting purposes, an unduplicated headcount of students utilizes the home institution model for assigning students to a primary
International (nonresident alien) student See Ethnicity. PEDS precipied Postucional professional Courts (postucional professional Courts from California Courts for Estimation Students). PEDS programs The Highler (discution Courts) and students and vocational institution that particulates in the federal student all organisms. The Highler (discution Act of 1955) is a medical required to expend the required programs. The Highler (discution Act of 1955) is a medical required for quality and students of programs report action on expenditure and parents through the College New Journal Act of 1955 is a measured programs. In the College of Pederal Students and parents through the College New Journal Act of 1955 is a measured program of the college of t	Indigenous Persons
PEDS Integrated Postscending Foliagen on Data Systems is a disabase managed by the National Center for Education Statistics (INCS) per compressional monday in programs. The Higher Education and real contains that participates in Heridan Student Technical on programs. The Higher Education and real contains and ventural montain that participates in Heridan Student Technical programs. The Higher Education and real contains and appropriate that in the College Nanigator weekles and to researches and others through the College Nanigator weekles and to researches and others through the College Nanigator weekles and to researches and others through the PIDS Data Center. A student with his to complete 60-80 center. A student who has completed 60-80 center. A student of the Jimited appointment employee Chancellor, Assistant Chancellor, or Associate Vice Chancellor, Pasistant Associate Vice Chancellor, Pasistant Vice Pasistant, Associate Vice Chancellor, Pasistant Vice Pasistant Vice Pasistant Vice Vice Pasistant, Associate Vice Chancellor, Pasistant Vice Vice Pasistant, Associate Vice Chancellor, Pasistant Vice Vice Vice Vice Vice Vice Vice Vice mandate. PERS gathers information from every college, university and technical and vocational institution that participates in the federal student financial and parents through the College on Port (College). In program of completions, program completions, progr		·
A university employee who "serves at the pleasure of the authorized official who act the appointment." Positions assigned to the following titles an required to the filed by limited appointment. Prosocity for Prededing, Associate Vice Prededing to the readermic staff titles may also be designated as "at will" and filled by limited appointment. A student who received a Federal Pell Grant in their first year of emrollment. A student who received a Federal Pell Grant in their first year of emrollment. A student who received a Federal Pell Grant in their first year of emrollment. A student who received a Federal Pell Grant in their first year of emrollment. A student who received a Federal Pell Grant in their first year of emrollment. A student who received a Federal Pell Grant in their first year of emrollment. A student who received a Federal Pell Grant in their first year of emrollment. A student who received a Federal Pell Grant in their first year of emrollment. A student who received a Federal Pell Grant in their first year of emrollment. A student who was a student student student in their first year of emrollment. A student who was a student student student student in their their was subjected to the student student plant in their their their their students plant in their first year of emrollment. A segment the successful completion of a program of study of at least the full-time equivalent of one but not more than two audicates and their their students who and their students their first year of emrollment in their students to students their their plant two audicates and their students who are also and their students and th	IPEDS	mandate. IPEDS gathers information from every college, university and technical and vocational institution that participates in the federal student financial aid programs. The Higher Education Act of 1965 (as amended) requires that institutions that participate in federal student aid programs report data on enrollments, program completions, graduation rates, faculty and staff, finances, institutional prices and student financial aid. These data are made available to students and
Limited appointment employee Chancellor, Assistant Annealior, Associate Chancellor, Asso	Junior	A student who has completed 60-89.9 credits.
Jemanes useres A student who received a federal Pell Grant in their first year of enrollment. The subject or field of study in which a student specializes, for example, students planning to specialize in mathematics will major in that field. Students of choosing to specialize in two subjects have a double major. An award that requires the successful completion of a program of study of at least the full-time equivalent of one but not more than two academic years of work beyond the bancher's degree. An award that requires the successful completion of a program allows undergraduate and graduate students from participating states - including indiana, Kanasa, Minnescoal, Miscous, Hebraska, North Oakota, Ohio and Wisconsin - to attend colleges or universities in other participating states at a trution of no more than 150 percent of resident tutition. An agreement that allows Minnescoal and Wisconsin residents to attend higher education institutions in either state without having to pay nonresident tution. The agreement is subject to legislative approval by the binic Committee on Finance. All Red of secondary explanasis. The total number of units required in the minor feels sets than that required for the major. New First-Year Class The incoming class of first-time students who begin their academic career in the Fall semester of a particular academic year. New student See New First-Year Class A student who has no creditable (i.e. acceptable for transfer course work in higher education (other than credits seaned in summer session or high school). The committee on finance. Non-Degree Seeking A student who has no creditable (i.e. acceptable for transfer course work in higher education (other than credits seaned in summer session or high school). The committee of high their academic career in the Fall semester of a particular academic year. Non-Degree Seeking A student enrolled in courses for credit who is not recognized by the institution as seeking a degree or formal award. The determination of in state	Limited appointment employee	to be filled by limited appointees: President, Provost, Vice President, Associate Vice President, Assistant Vice President, Chancellor, Vice Chancellor, Associate Chancellor, Associate Vice Chancellor. Positions assigned to other academic staff titles may also be designated as "at will" and filled by
The subject or field of study in which a student specializes. For example, students planning to specialize in mathematics will major in that field. Students choosing to specialize in most subjects have a double major. Master's degree An award that requires the successful completion of a program of study of at least the full-time equivalent of one but not more than two academic years of work beyond the bachlor's degree. An award that requires the successful completion of a program of study of at least the full-time equivalent of one but not more than two academic years of work beyond the bachlor's degree. Approgram of the Midwestern Higher Education Compact. This program allows undergraduate and graduate students from participating states at a tuition of no more than 150 percent of resident tuition. In one than 150 percent of resident tuition. An agreement that allows Minnesota administered jointly by the Minnesota Office of Higher Education (MOHE) and the Wisconsin Higher Education on committee on Finance. Minor An agreement that allows Minnesota and Wisconsin residents to attend higher education (MOHE) and the Wisconsin Higher Education Alads Board (HEAB). In Wisconsin, the agreement is subject to legislative approval by the loint Committee on Finance. Minor A field of secondary emphasis. The total number of units required in the minor fields less than that required for the major. The incoming class of first-time students who begin their academic career in the Fall semester of a particular academic year. New Festhman Class A student who has no creditable (i.e. acceptable for transfer) course work and therefore do not alter a student control teacher of the particular academic year. New Student See New First-Year Class Non-Degree Seeking A student who does not meet eligibility requirements for residency in Misconsin for tuition purposes, outlined in Misconsin Statute 36.27. Nontraditional student Nontraditional student An undergraduate student who is 25 years of age or older. Peristance at the	Limited term employee (LTE)
Master's degree An award that requires the successful completion of a program of study of at least the full-time equivalent of one but not more than two academic years of work beyond the batchelor's degree. An award that requires the successful completion of a program of study of at least the full-time equivalent of one but not more than two academic years of work beyond the batchelor's degree. A program of the Midwestern Higher Education Compact. This program allows undergraduate and graduate students from participating states are to make the more than 150 percent of resident tuition. An agreement that allows Minnecota and Wisconsin residents to attend higher education institutions in either state without having to pay nonresident tuition. An agreement is negotiated and administered jointly by the Minnecota Office of Higher Education (MOHE) and the Wisconsin Higher Educational Aids Board (HEAB). In Wisconsin, the agreement is subject to legislate approval by the Committee on Finance. Minnecota Reciprocity A field of secondary emphasis. The total number of units required in the minor field is less than that required for the major. New Freshman Class See New First. Year Class The incoming class of first-time students who begin their academic career in the fall senseter of a particular academic year. New Freshman Class See New First. Year Class A student who has no creditable (i.e. acceptable for transfer) course work in higher education (Other than credits earned in summer session or high school). The wident is considered a new student of the sine were to higher education, on gist new to the Extended Degree Program (EDP). Prior learning credits on not qualify as acceptable for transfer cruuse work and therefore do not alter a student's entrance status (i.e., a student can have prior learning credits on not qualify as acceptable for transfer cruuse work and therefore do not alter a student's entrance status. Non-Degree Seeking Associated enterolled in courses for credit who is not recognized by the in	Low-income student
An award that requires the successful completion of a program of study of at least the full-time equivalent of one but not more than two academic years of work beyond the bachelor's degree. Midwest Student Exchange Program (MSEP) A program of the Midwestern Higher Education Compact. This program allows undergraduate and graduate students from participating states a truition of no more than 150 percent of resident tuition. An agreement that allows Minnesota And Wisconsin residents to attend higher education institutions in either state without having to pay nonresident tuition. An agreement that allows Minnesota and Wisconsin residents to attend higher education institutions in either state without having to pay nonresident tuition. The agreement is in expectated and administered jointly by the Minnesota Office of Higher Education (MOHE) and the Wisconsin Higher Educational Aids Board (HEAB). In Wisconsin, the agreement is subject to legislative approval by the Joint Committee on Finance. A field of secondary emphasis. The total number of units required in the minor field is less than that required for the major. New Frishman Class See New First-Year Class The incoming class of first-time students who begin their academic career in the Fall semester of a particular academic year. New Feshman Class See New First-Year Class A student who has no creditable (i.e. acceptable for transfer) course work in higher education (other than credits earned in summer session or high school). The students is onsidered a new student if s/hie is new to higher education, not just new to the Extended Degree Program (EDP). Prior learning credits do not qualify as acceptable for transfer crouse transit less than that required for them credits earned in summer session or high school). The students who seems that the summer session is a student who does not meet eligibility required in course for credit who is not recognized by the institution as seeking a degree or formal award. The determination of in-state versus out-of-	Major
Midwest Student Exchange Program (MSEP) An agreement that allows Minnesota and Wisconsin residents to attend higher education institutions in either state without having to pay nonresident tuition. The agreement is negotiated and administered jointly by the Minnesota Office of Higher Education (MOHE) and the Wisconsin Higher Educational Aids Board (HEAB). In Wisconsin, the agreement is subject to legislative approval be interested on Finance. Minor A field of secondary emphasis. The total number of units required in the minor field is less than that required for the major. New First-Year Class The incoming class of first-time students who begin their academic career in the Fall semester of a particular academic year. New Freshman Class As tudent who has no creditable (i.e. acceptable for transfer) course work in higher education (other than credits earned in summer session or high school). The student is considered a new student if s/ph is new to higher education, not just new to the Extended Degree Program (EDP). Prior learning credits do not qualify as acceptable for transfer course work and therefore do not alter a student's entrance status (i.e., a student can have prior learning credits and can still be considered an ew student). See Extraore status. Non-Degree Seeking A student errolled in courses for credit who is not recognized by the institution as seeking a degree or formal award. The determination of in-state residency for the purposes of assessing turition and fees. A nonresident is a student who does not meet eligibility requirements for residency in Wisconsin for tuition purposes, outlined in Wisconsin Statute 36.27. Nonresident An undergraduate student who is a 25 years of age or older. Nonresident turing a s	Mankaula da ausa indiana, Kansas, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, North Dakota, Ohio and Wisconsin - to attend colleges or universities in other participating states at a tuition of no more than 150 percent of resident tuition. An agreement that allows Minnesota and Wisconsin residents to attend higher education institutions in either state without having to pay nonresident tuition. The agreement is negotiated and administered jointly by the Minnesota Office of Higher Education (MOHE) and the Wisconsin Higher Educational Aids Board (HEAB). In Wisconsin, the agreement is subject to legislative approvals the international participation of the properties of the participation of th	iviaster's degree
Minor A feed of secondary emphasis. The total number of units required in the Misconsin Higher Educational Aids Board (HEAB). In Wisconsin, the agreement is subject to legislative approval by the Joint Committee on Finance. A feed of secondary emphasis. The total number of units required in the minor field is less than that required for the major. A feed of secondary emphasis. The total number of units required in the minor field is less than that required for the major. New Freshman Class See New Freshman Class A student who has no creditable (i.e. acceptable for transfer) course work in higher education (other than credits earned in summer session or high school). The student is considered a new student if s/he is new to higher education, not just new to the Extended Degree Program (EDP). Prior learning credits do not qualify as acceptable for transfer course work and there as toudent's entranse status (i.e., a student can have prior learning credits do not qualify as acceptable for transfer course work and there as toudent's entranse status (i.e., a student can have prior learning credits and can still be considered a new student). See Entrance status. Non-Degree Seeking A student enrolled in courses for credit who is not recognized by the institution as seeking a degree or formal award. The determination of in-state versus out-of-state residency for the purposes of assessing tuition and fees. A nonresident is a student who does not meet eligibility requirements for residency in Wisconsin for tuition purposes, outlined in Wisconsin Statute 36.27. Nontraditional student An undergraduate student who is 25 years of age or older. Non-Underrepresented Minority (InM). Opportunity gap See Achievement gap. An encollement category based on a student's credit load. Generally, this refers to an undergraduate student enrolled for less than 12 credits or a graduate student enrolled for less than 12 credits or a graduate student student enrolled for less than 12 credits or a graduate student such as a consti	Midwest Student Exchange Program (MSEP)	Indiana, Kansas, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, North Dakota, Ohio and Wisconsin - to attend colleges or universities in other participating states at a tuition of
The incoming class of first-time students who begin their academic career in the Fall semester of a particular academic year. See New First-Year Class A student who has no creditable (i.e. acceptable for transfer) course work in higher education (other than credits earned in summer session or high school). The student is considered a new student if s/he is new to higher education, not just new to the Extended Degree Program (EDP). Prior learning credits do not qualify as a sceptable for transfer course work and therefore who at alter actudent's entrance status (i.e., a student can have prior learning credits do not qualify as acceptable for transfer course work and therefore work and the purposes of assessing utition and fees. A nonresident is a student who does not meet eligibility requirements for residency in Wisconsin for tuition purposes, outlined in Wisconsin Statute 36.27. Non-traditional student Non-underrepresented Minority (Non-URM) See Underrepresented Minority (Non-URM) See Underrepresented Minority (Non-URM) See Underrepresented Minority (Non-URM) Opportunity gap Part-time student An enrollment category based on a student's credit load. Generally, this refers to an undergraduate student enrolled for less than 12 credits or a graduate student enrolled for less than 12 credits or a graduate student enrolled for less than 12 credits or a graduate student work and the presentage of students who remain enrolled in a given time period. IRP's persistence reports demonstrate the percentage of students who remain enrolled in a given time period. IRP'	Minnesota Reciprocity	The agreement is negotiated and administered jointly by the Minnesota Office of Higher Education (MOHE) and the Wisconsin Higher Educational Aids Board
New Freshman Class See New First-Year Class A student who has no creditable (i.e. acceptable for transfer) course work in higher education (other than credits earned in summer session or high school). The student is considered a new student if s/he is new to higher education, not just new to the Extended Degree Program (EDP). Prior learning credits do not qualify as acceptable for transfer course work and therefore do not alter a student's entrance status (i.e., a student can have prior learning credits and can still be considered a new student). See Entrance status. Non-Degree Seeking A student enrolled in courses for credit who is not recognized by the institution as seeking a degree or formal award. The determination of in-state versus out-of-state residency for the purposes of assessing tuition and fees. A nonresident is a student who does not meet eligibility requirements for residency in Wisconsin for in Wisconsin Statute 36.27. Non-Inderrepresented Minority (Non-URM) See Underrepresented Student who is 25 years of age or older. Non-Underrepresented Minority (Non-URM) Opportunity gap See Achievement gap. See Achievement gap. See Achievement gap. See Achievement gap. An enrollment category based on a student's credit load. Generally, this refers to an undergraduate student enrolled for less than 12 credits or a graduate student enrolled for less than 9 credits in a particular semester during the academic year. Peristence rate The percentage of students who remain enrolled in a given time period. IRP's persistence reports demonstrate the percentage of students who remain enrolled for less than 9 credits from another institution (other than Summer session), and returned. In the case of undergraduates, a student who did not earn transferable credits from another institution (other than Summer session), and returned. In the case of undergraduates, a student who did not earn transferable credits from another institution (other than Summer session), and returned. In the case of undergraduates, a	Minor
A student who has no creditable (i.e. acceptable for transfer) course work in higher education (other than credits earned in summer session or high school). The student is considered a new student if s/he is new to higher education, not just new to the Extended Degree Program (EDP). Prior learning credits do not qualify as acceptable for transfer course work and therefore do not alter a student's entrance status (i.e., a student can have prior learning credits and can still be considered a new student). See Entrance status. Non-Degree Seeking A student enrolled in courses for credit who is not recognized by the institution as seeking a degree or formal award. The determination of in-state versus out-of-state residency for the purposes of assessing tuition and fees. A nonresident is a student who does not meet eligibility requirements for residency in Wisconsin for tuition purposes, outlined in Wisconsin Statute 36.27. An undergraduate student who is 25 years of age or older. Non-Underrepresented Minority (Non-URM) See Underrepresented Minority (IRM). Office of Policy Analysis and Research (OPAR) University of Wisconsin System's Office of Policy Analysis and Research. Opportunity gap See Achievement gap. An enrollment category based on a student's credit load. Generally, this refers to an undergraduate student enrolled for less than 12 credits or a graduate student enrolled for less than 12 credits or a graduate student enrolled for less than 12 credits or a graduate student enrolled for less than 12 credits or a graduate student enrolled for less than 12 credits or a graduate student enrolled for less than 12 credits or a graduate student enrolled for less than 12 credits or a graduate student enrolled for less than 12 credits or a graduate student enrolled for less than 12 credits or a graduate student enrolled for less than 12 credits or a graduate student enrolled for less than 12 credits or a graduate student enrolled for less than 12 credits or a graduate student who lead to students who remain student is considered a new student if s/he is new to higher education, not just new to the Extended Degree Program (EDP). Prior learning credits do not qualify as acceptable for transfer course work and therefore do not alter a student's entrance status (i.e., a student can have prior learning credits and can still be considered a new student). See Entrance status. Non-Degree Seeking A student enrolled in courses for credit who is not recognized by the institution as seeking a degree or formal award. The determination of in-state versus out-of-state residency for the purposes of assessing tuition and fees. A nonresident is a student who does not meet eligibility requirements for residency in Wisconsin for tuition purposes, outlined in Wisconsin Statute 36.27. Nontraditional student An undergraduate student who is 25 years of age or older. Non-Underrepestented Minority (Non-URM) See Underrepresented Minority (URM). Office of Policy Analysis and Research (OPAR) University of Wisconsin System's Office of Policy Analysis and Research. Opportunity gap See Achievement gap. See Achievement gap. Part-time student An enrollment category based on a student's credit load. Generally, this refers to an undergraduate student enrolled for less than 12 credits or a graduate student enrolled for less than 9 credits in a particular semester during the academic year. Perli Grant A federal grant awarded to undergraduate students based on financial need. The percentage of students who remain enrolled in a given time period. IRP's persistence reports demonstrate the percentage of students who remain enrolled rerm-to-Term (Fall-to-Spring or Spring-to-Fall). Receptable Credits from another institution (other than Summer session), and returned. In the case of undergraduates, a student who did not earn transferable credits from another institution (other than Summer session) while away from UW-Whitewater, and has re-enrolled at UW-Whitewater, see Entrance status. The UW System requires students who have been identifi	IVEW 1 (ESHIII all Class
The determination of in-state versus out-of-state residency for the purposes of assessing fuition and fees. A nonresident is a student who does not meet eligibility requirements for residency in Wisconsin for tuition purposes, outlined in Wisconsin Statute 36.27. Non-Underrepresented Minority (Non-URM) See Underrepresented Minority (URM). Office of Policy Analysis and Research (OPAR) University of Wisconsin System's Office of Policy Analysis and Research. See Achievement gap. An enrollment category based on a student's credit load. Generally, this refers to an undergraduate student enrolled for less than 12 credits or a graduate student enrolled for less than 12 credits or a graduate student enrolled for less than 9 credits in a particular semester during the academic year. A federal grant awarded to undergraduate students based on financial need. Persistence rate The percentage of students who remain enrolled in a given time period. IRP's persistence reports demonstrate the percentage of students who remain enrolled rerm-to-Term (Fall-to-Spring or Spring-to-Fall). See Ethnicity. A student who was enrolled at UW-Whitewater, left for one or more terms (other than Summer session), and returned. In the case of undergraduates, a student who did not earn transferable credits from another institution (other than Summer session) while away from UW-Whitewater, and has re-enrolled at UW-Whitewater. See Entrance status. The UW System requires students who have been identified as being under-prepared in the areas of Math or English to take remedial coursework. The individual UW institutions determine how those required remedial classes are offered and oversee the specific curriculum, standards, and method of instruction, associated with them. Retention rate Program that offers non-residents a 25% discount on out-of-state tuition, provided a parent, guardian, or grandparent had previously graduated from UW-	New student	student is considered a new student if s/he is new to higher education, not just new to the Extended Degree Program (EDP). Prior learning credits do not qualify as acceptable for transfer course work and therefore do not alter a student's entrance status (i.e., a student can have prior learning credits and can still be eligibility requirements for residency in Wisconsin for tuition purposes, outlined in Wisconsin Statute 36.27. Nontraditional student An undergraduate student who is 25 years of age or older. Non-Underrepresented Minority (Non-URM) See Underrepresented Minority (URM). Office of Policy Analysis and Research (OPAR) University of Wisconsin System's Office of Policy Analysis and Research. Opportunity gap See Achievement gap. An enrollment category based on a student's credit load. Generally, this refers to an undergraduate student enrolled for less than 12 credits or a graduate student enrolled for less than 12 credits or a graduate student enrolled for less than 12 credits or a graduate student enrolled for less than 12 credits or a graduate student enrolled for less than 12 credits or a graduate student enrolled for less than 12 credits or a graduate student enrolled for less than 12 credits or a graduate student enrolled for less than 12 credits or a graduate student enrolled for less than 12 credits or a graduate student enrolled in a given time period. IRP's persistence reports demonstrate the percentage of students who remain enrolled in a given time period. IRP's persistence reports demonstrate the percentage of students who remain enrolled in a given time period. IRP's persistence reports demonstrate the percentage of students who remain enrolled in a given time period. IRP's persistence reports demonstrate the percentage of undergraduates, a student who did not earn transferable credits from another institution (other than Summer session), and returned. In the case of undergraduates, a student who did not earn transferable credits from another institution (other than Summer session) while away from UW-Whitewater, and has re-enrolled at UW-Whitewater. See Entrance status. The UW System requires students who have been identified as being under-prepared in the areas of Math or English to take remedial coursework. The individual UW institutions determine how those required remedial classes are offered and	Non-Degree Seeking
An undergraduate student who is 25 years of age or older. Non-Underrepresented Minority (Non-URM) See Underrepresented Minority (URM). Opportunity gap See Achievement gap. An enrollment category based on a student's credit load. Generally, this refers to an undergraduate student enrolled for less than 12 credits or a graduate student enrolled for less than 12 credits or a graduate student enrolled for less than 9 credits in a particular semester during the academic year. Pell Grant A federal grant awarded to undergraduate students based on financial need. The percentage of students who remain enrolled in a given time period. IRP's persistence reports demonstrate the percentage of students who remain enrolled rem-to-Term (Fall-to-Spring or Spring-to-Fall). Race/ethnicity See Ethnicity See Ethnicity A student who was enrolled at UW-Whitewater, left for one or more terms (other than Summer session), and returned. In the case of undergraduates, a student who did not earn transferable credits from another institution (other than Summer session) while away from UW-Whitewater, and has re-enrolled at UW-Whitewater. See Entrance status. The UW System requires students who have been identified as being under-prepared in the areas of Math or English to take remedial coursework. The individual UW institutions determine how those required remedial classes are offered and oversee the specific curriculum, standards, and method of instruction, associated with them. Retention rate The percentage of students who remain enrolled in a given time period. IRP's retention reports demonstrate the percentage of students who remain enrolled were required remedial classes are offered and oversee the specific curriculum, standards, and method of instruction, associated with them. A program that offers non-residents a 25% discount on out-of-state tuition, provided a parent, guardian, or grandparent had previously graduated from UW-	Nonresident	, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,
Non-Underrepresented Minority (Non-URM) Office of Policy Analysis and Research (OPAR) University of Wisconsin System's Office of Policy Analysis and Research. Opportunity gap See Achievement gap. Part-time student An enrollment category based on a student's credit load. Generally, this refers to an undergraduate student enrolled for less than 12 credits or a graduate student enrolled for less than 9 credits in a particular semester during the academic year. Pell Grant A federal grant awarded to undergraduate students based on financial need. The percentage of students who remain enrolled in a given time period. IRP's persistence reports demonstrate the percentage of students who remain enrolled Term-to-Term (Fall-to-Spring or Spring-to-Fall). Re-entry student A student who was enrolled at UW-Whitewater, left for one or more terms (other than Summer session), and returned. In the case of undergraduates, a student who did not earn transferable credits from another institution (other than Summer session) while away from UW-Whitewater, and has re-enrolled at UW-Whitewater. See Entrance status. The UW System requires students who have been identified as being under-prepared in the areas of Math or English to take remedial coursework. The individual UW institutions determine how those required remedial classes are offered and oversee the specific curriculum, standards, and method of instruction, associated with them. Retention rate The percentage of students who remain enrolled in a given time period. IRP's retention reports demonstrate the percentage of students who remain enrolled Year-to-Year (Fall-to-Fall or Spring-to-Spring). A program that offers non-residents a 25% discount on out-of-state tuition, provided a parent, guardian, or grandparent had previously graduated from UW-	Nontraditional student
See Achievement gap. An enrollment category based on a student's credit load. Generally, this refers to an undergraduate student enrolled for less than 12 credits or a graduate student enrolled for less than 12 credits or a graduate student enrolled for less than 12 credits or a graduate student enrolled for less than 12 credits or a graduate student student enrolled for less than 12 credits or a graduate student student enrolled for less than 12 credits or a graduate student student graduate students based on financial need. Perli Grant A federal grant awarded to undergraduate students based on financial need. The percentage of students who remain enrolled in a given time period. IRP's persistence reports demonstrate the percentage of students who remain enrolled Term-to-Term (Fall-to-Spring or Spring-to-Fall). See Ethnicity. A student who was enrolled at UW-Whitewater, left for one or more terms (other than Summer session), and returned. In the case of undergraduates, a student who did not earn transferable credits from another institution (other than Summer session) while away from UW-Whitewater, and has re-enrolled at UW-Whitewater. See Entrance status. The UW System requires students who have been identified as being under-prepared in the areas of Math or English to take remedial coursework. The individual UW institutions determine how those required remedial classes are offered and oversee the specific curriculum, standards, and method of instruction, associated with them. The percentage of students who remain enrolled in a given time period. IRP's retention reports demonstrate the percentage of students who remain enrolled Year-to-Year (Fall-to-Fall or Spring-to-Spring). A program that offers non-residents a 25% discount on out-of-state tuition, provided a parent, guardian, or grandparent had previously graduated from UW-	Non-Underrepresented Minority (Non-URM)	See Underrepresented Minority (URM).
student enrolled for less than 9 credits in a particular semester during the academic year. A federal grant awarded to undergraduate students based on financial need. The percentage of students who remain enrolled in a given time period. IRP's persistence reports demonstrate the percentage of students who remain enrolled Term-to-Term (Fall-to-Spring or Spring-to-Fall). Race/ethnicity See Ethnicity. A student who was enrolled at UW-Whitewater, left for one or more terms (other than Summer session), and returned. In the case of undergraduates, a student who did not earn transferable credits from another institution (other than Summer session) while away from UW-Whitewater, and has re-enrolled at UW-Whitewater. See Entrance status. The UW System requires students who have been identified as being under-prepared in the areas of Math or English to take remedial coursework. The individual UW institutions determine how those required remedial classes are offered and oversee the specific curriculum, standards, and method of instruction, associated with them. Retention rate The percentage of students who remain enrolled in a given time period. IRP's retention reports demonstrate the percentage of students who remain enrolled Year-to-Year (Fall-to-Fall or Spring-to-Spring). A program that offers non-residents a 25% discount on out-of-state tuition, provided a parent, guardian, or grandparent had previously graduated from UW-	Office of Policy Analysis and Research (OPAR) Opportunity gap	See Achievement gap.
The percentage of students who remain enrolled in a given time period. IRP's persistence reports demonstrate the percentage of students who remain enrolled Term-to-Term (Fall-to-Spring or Spring-to-Fall). Race/ethnicity See Ethnicity. A student who was enrolled at UW-Whitewater, left for one or more terms (other than Summer session), and returned. In the case of undergraduates, a student who did not earn transferable credits from another institution (other than Summer session) while away from UW-Whitewater, and has re-enrolled at UW-Whitewater. See Entrance status. The UW System requires students who have been identified as being under-prepared in the areas of Math or English to take remedial coursework. The individual UW institutions determine how those required remedial classes are offered and oversee the specific curriculum, standards, and method of instruction, associated with them. Retention rate The percentage of students who remain enrolled in a given time period. IRP's retention reports demonstrate the percentage of students who remain enrolled Year-to-Year (Fall-to-Fall or Spring-to-Spring). A program that offers non-residents a 25% discount on out-of-state tuition, provided a parent, guardian, or grandparent had previously graduated from UW-	Part-time student	student enrolled for less than 9 credits in a particular semester during the academic year.
Term-to-Term (Fall-to-Spring or Spring-to-Fall). Race/ethnicity See Ethnicity. A student who was enrolled at UW-Whitewater, left for one or more terms (other than Summer session), and returned. In the case of undergraduates, a student who did not earn transferable credits from another institution (other than Summer session) while away from UW-Whitewater, and has re-enrolled at UW-Whitewater. See Entrance status. The UW System requires students who have been identified as being under-prepared in the areas of Math or English to take remedial coursework. The individual UW institutions determine how those required remedial classes are offered and oversee the specific curriculum, standards, and method of instruction, associated with them. Retention rate The percentage of students who remain enrolled in a given time period. IRP's retention reports demonstrate the percentage of students who remain enrolled Year-to-Year (Fall-to-Fall or Spring-to-Spring). A program that offers non-residents a 25% discount on out-of-state tuition, provided a parent, guardian, or grandparent had previously graduated from UW-	Pell Grant
A student who was enrolled at UW-Whitewater, left for one or more terms (other than Summer session), and returned. In the case of undergraduates, a student who did not earn transferable credits from another institution (other than Summer session) while away from UW-Whitewater, and has re-enrolled at UW-Whitewater. See Entrance status. The UW System requires students who have been identified as being under-prepared in the areas of Math or English to take remedial coursework. The individual UW institutions determine how those required remedial classes are offered and oversee the specific curriculum, standards, and method of instruction, associated with them. Retention rate The percentage of students who remain enrolled in a given time period. IRP's retention reports demonstrate the percentage of students who remain enrolled Year-to-Year (Fall-to-Fall or Spring-to-Spring). A program that offers non-residents a 25% discount on out-of-state tuition, provided a parent, guardian, or grandparent had previously graduated from UW-	Persistence rate who did not earn transferable credits from another institution (other than Summer session) while away from UW-Whitewater, and has re-enrolled at UW-Whitewater. See Entrance status. The UW System requires students who have been identified as being under-prepared in the areas of Math or English to take remedial coursework. The individual UW institutions determine how those required remedial classes are offered and oversee the specific curriculum, standards, and method of instruction, associated with them. Retention rate The percentage of students who remain enrolled in a given time period. IRP's retention reports demonstrate the percentage of students who remain enrolled Year-to-Year (Fall-to-Fall or Spring-to-Spring). A program that offers non-residents a 25% discount on out-of-state tuition, provided a parent, guardian, or grandparent had previously graduated from UW-	Race/ethnicity
The UW System requires students who have been identified as being under-prepared in the areas of Math or English to take remedial coursework. The individual UW institutions determine how those required remedial classes are offered and oversee the specific curriculum, standards, and method of instruction, associated with them. The percentage of students who remain enrolled in a given time period. IRP's retention reports demonstrate the percentage of students who remain enrolled Year-to-Year (Fall-to-Fall or Spring-to-Spring). A program that offers non-residents a 25% discount on out-of-state tuition, provided a parent, guardian, or grandparent had previously graduated from UW-	Re-entry student	who did not earn transferable credits from another institution (other than Summer session) while away from UW-Whitewater, and has re-enrolled at UW-
Year-to-Year (Fall-to-Fall or Spring-to-Spring). A program that offers non-residents a 25% discount on out-of-state tuition, provided a parent, guardian, or grandparent had previously graduated from UW-	Remedial	The UW System requires students who have been identified as being under-prepared in the areas of Math or English to take remedial coursework. The individual UW institutions determine how those required remedial classes are offered and oversee the specific curriculum, standards, and method of instruction, associated with them.
Refurn to Wisconsin program	Retention rate	Year-to-Year (Fall-to-Fall or Spring-to-Spring).
	Return to Wisconsin program

Yield rate	number of students matriculated divided by the number of students offered admission).
Wisconsin Resident Special Student (Age 60 and over)	A student classification that applies to Wisconsin resident students age 60 or over who are exclusively auditing courses. The percentage of students that have applied to and been accepted by the UW-Whitewater, who then choose to enroll at UW-Whitewater (calculated as
Wisconsin Resident Special Student (OASDI)	exclusively auditing courses.
	fill up quickly during the academic year. A student classification that applies to Wisconsin resident students receiving federal old age, survivors, and/or disability insurance benefits (OASDI) who are
Winterim term	the Rock County and Whitewater Campuses. A three-week session held between the Fall and Spring terms designed to help students keep on track for graduation. It features sections of courses that tend to
Whitewater Campus	In 2018, the University of Wisconsin System restructured the state's 13 two-year campuses formerly known as UW Colleges to be joined as branch campuses with seven of the four-year campuses. As a result, in Fall 2018 UW-Rock County, a two-year college located in Janesville, Wisconsin, began operating as a branch campus of UW-Whitewater under the new name of University of Wisconsin - Whitewater at Rock County. Whitewater Campus is used to differentiate between
Veteran's Choice Act	Requires that certain eligible non-resident U.S. veterans and other eligible benefit recipients be charged the same tuition as Wisconsin residents pursuing the same course or program.
Veteran	A current or former member of the U.S. military who was not dishonorably discharged. There is no requirement for active duty or a minimum number of days that the student must have served to be considered a veteran.
UWSA	University of Wisconsin System Administration
University staff	Employees in civil service positions. University staff positions are quite varied and duties include, but are not limited to, administrative support, information technology, accounting, engineering, in addition to custodial, food service, and crafts workers.
Underrepresented Minority (URM)	URM status refers to students with a Race/Ethnicity of African American/Black, American Indian/Alaskan Native, Hispanic/Latino(a), and Southeast Asian, either alone or as one of 'Two or More Race/Ethnicities'. Non-URM status refers to students with a Race/Ethnicity of Other Asian, Native Hawaiian/Pacific Islander, White/Caucasian, Unknown, and students who have identified as 'Two or More Race/Ethnicities' (none of which are on the URM list).
Undergraduate student	A student seeking an associate or bachelor's degree or who has been admitted as an undergraduate student for the purpose of taking classes.
Tuition	The price of instruction at UW-Whitewater, which varies according to a student's resident status. See Resident status . Tuition does not include segregated fees, or the cost of room and board, textbooks, or other expenses associated with attending university.
Transfer student	An undergraduate student transferring credits from another institution of higher education (other than credits earned during Summer term or while enrolled in high school) who has not previously enrolled at UW-Whitewater. See Entrance status .
Transfer/Re-entry	See Combination re-entry/transfer student.
Tenure	granted tenure status, is considered to be in a tenure-track appointment.
Summer term	A twelve-week session between Spring and Fall Semesters that include courses in three, six, nine, or 12-week increments. A permanent job contract, granted to faculty after a probationary period of several years. A faculty member who is eligible for tenure, but has not yet been
Study away	from total enrollment counts.
	A student studying in another country and/or through a cooperative agreement with another institution in the United States. These students are often excluded
Study abroad	and part-time faculty counts, and the percentage of faculty who have predominately instructional responsibilities. See Study away.
Student-to-faculty ratio	A ratio calculated using a formula provided by the Common Data Set (CDS), which takes into account both full-time and part-time student counts, both full-time
Student help	supporting grant or contract preclude the use of other normally appropriate titles. See Student assistant employee.
	 have been assigned teaching responsibilities in an instructional department under the supervision of a faculty member. Undergraduate student assistant employees are only employed when: no qualified graduate student is available to perform a function that would normally be assigned to graduate student assistants and/or the terms of a supportion grant or contract product the use of other permulty appropriate titles.
	• are employed to assist with research, training, or other academic programs or projects; and/or
Student assistant employee	students. Graduate student assistant employees may: • hold a fellowship, scholarship, or traineeship; • hold an appointment which is intended primarily to further the education and training of the student;
	A student who receives a wage for providing part-time and/or temporary administrative, clerical, laborer, technical, or other general support to administrators, faculty, and staff of UW-Whitewater. This employment category within the University Personnel System is comprised of both graduate and undergraduate STEM	An acronym that refers to the academic disciplines of science, technology, engineering and mathematics. At UW-Whitewater, the following majors qualify as STEM disciplines: biology (CIP code 26), chemistry (CIP code 40), computer science (CIP code 11), environmental science (CIP code 03), mathematics (CIP code 27), and physics (CIP code 40). This selection corresponds to the CIP code areas considered by UW System to comprise the STEM fields: Agricultural Sciences (01.0308, 01.09, 01.10, 01.11, 01.12), Natural Resources and Conservation (03), Computer Science and Info Systems (11), Engineering (14), Engineering Technology (15), Life/Biological Science (26), Mathematics and Statistics (27), Physical Science (40), Multi/Interdisciplinary Studies (30.27) and Health (51).
Sophomore Sophomore	A student who has completed 94 or more credits. A student who has completed 24-59.9 credits.
Senior	Wisconsin System institutions. A student who has completed 90 or more credits.
Segregated fees	campus of UW-Whitewater under the new name of University of Wisconsin - Whitewater at Rock County. Rock County Campus is used to differentiate between the Rock County and Whitewater Campuses. Charges, in addition to instructional fees, assessed to all students for student services, activities, programs and facilities that support the mission of University of
Rock County Campus	is enrolled is classified as a resident of Wisconsin. In 2018, the University of Wisconsin System restructured the state's 13 two-year campuses formerly known as UW Colleges to be joined as branch campuses with seven of the four-year campuses. As a result, in Fall 2018 UW-Rock County, a two-year college located in Janesville, Wisconsin, began operating as a branch
Resident status	The determination of in-state versus out-of-state residency for the purposes of assessing tuition and fees. A student who graduated from a Wisconsin high school or has one or both parents living continuously as bona fide residents in Wisconsin for at least twelve months prior to the beginning in which the student