

Fieldhouse Attendant Position Description

The fieldhouse attendant is responsible for the oversight of the fieldhouse when open recreation is offered and when athletic practices are scheduled.

Responsibilities include but not limited to:

- Providing First Aid/CPR if necessary
- Checking student id's and membership cards
- Assisting in the set up/take down of equipment based on the activity
- Enforcing all rules and policies that have been established
- Providing customer service to all participants
- Assisting coaches during athletic practices with clearing the fieldhouse of open recreation participants and keeping open recreation participants out during athletic practices.

Requirements:

- Current UW-Whitewater student
- Certified in CPR/First Aid
- Completed all paperwork for payroll and met all Human Resource requirements