CHAPTER I: ACADEMIC STAFF ASSEMBLY

ARTICLE I - NAME

This organization of academic staff shall be known as the Academic Staff Assembly of the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater.

ARTICLE II- PURPOSE

The Academic Staff Assembly shall represent and be responsible to the general academic staff in governance matters and serve as the campus forum for the articulation of academic staff views concerning university, administrative, fiscal, and academic staff matters. The Academic Staff Assembly, shall represent the academic staff of the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater to the Board of Regents, the University of Wisconsin System administration, the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater administration, the Faculty Senate, the University Staff Council, and the Whitewater Student Government.

ARTICLE III - MEMBERSHIP

Section 1 - Academic Staff Assembly Members

The Academic Staff Assembly shall have a total of sixteen (16) elected members serving two-year terms, with eight (8) of those seats up for election each spring. Assembly membership should broadly represent the campus community. The Elections Committee is charged with striving to maintain that balance, including equal representation between Academic Staff and Instructional Academic Staff, specific representation of each College, and general representative distribution within the university.

The ASA Elections Committee shall use the process below to fill seats available through the expiration of a two-year term.

A. Review of Available Seats

- i. Establish distribution and constituencies of filled seats, defined as representatives completing the first year of their two-year term.
- ii. Work with appropriate administrators to determine the numbers and reporting distribution of Academic Staff and Instructional Academic Staff eligible to vote in ASA elections as of October of the current academic year.
- iii. Make recommendations to designate any available seats as open to specific constituencies, making every effort to ensure a balance between Academic Staff and Instructional Academic Staff that doesn't fall below a ratio of 7:9, and to maintain the balance referenced above.
- iv. Present recommendations to the Academic Staff Assembly for ratification prior to beginning to solicit nominations.

UW-WITTEWATER ACADEMIC STAFF BY-LAWS

B. Solicitation of Nominations

- i. Seek nominations for available seats from among all Academic Staff and Instructional Academic Staff eligible to vote.
- ii. Eligible individuals may nominate themselves or, if nominated by another individual, accept the nomination in order to be included on the ballot.
- iii. Self-nominations or nomination acceptances will include instructional status and a description of reporting areas and appointment percentages, along with any other information deemed necessary by the Elections Committee.
- iv. In the event that specific outreach needs were identified during the Review process, the Elections Committee will use a specific list of qualified staff from the identified area to solicit nominations using outreach method(s) deemed appropriate by the Elections Committee and the Executive Board.

C. Elections

- i. Eligible voters will be presented with a slate of all nominees, including their names, instructional status, reporting areas, and constituency area(s) if applicable.
- ii. Anonymous voting will be completed using a ranked choice system including an individual voter option to opt out of voting for any number of specific candidates.
- iii. The Elections Committee will first review the results of each available seat designated to specific constituencies, awarding the available seat to the nominee designated as the winner using an instant runoff vote system.
- iv. Once seats designated for specific constituencies have been awarded, the Elections Committee will designate any remaining available seats as "At-Large," and will award them as above.
- v. Elections results will be presented to the ASA for ratification in accordance with Chapter I, Article IV of the by-laws.
- vi. Once the electoral process is complete, the Elections Committee will update a constituency list, ensuring that all academic staff are assigned at least one specific point of contact within the Assembly.

Section 2 - Limit Upon Number of Academic Staff Assembly Members

There shall be no more than two (2) representatives to the Academic Staff Assembly from any one (1) operational unit.

Section 3 - Term of Office

Each member of the Academic Staff Assembly shall be elected to a two-year (2) term of office.

Section 4 - Consecutive Terms

An academic staff member may serve an unlimited number of consecutive terms. A term is defined as twenty-four (24) months beginning with the first Academic Staff Assembly meeting in May following elections. A person/appointed to fill a vacant term may be a candidate in the next scheduled election.

Section 5 - Academic Staff with Split Appointments

An academic staff member holding an appointment in two or more designated areas may only be a candidate for election in the area of the higher percentage. If the academic staff member holds a fifty (50) percent appointment in two areas, the Elections and Balloting Committee, in consultation with the candidate, shall authorize the specific area for elected representation. Once an individual academic staff member with a split appointment has been designated to a specific area by the Elections Committee, that designation may not be changed unless the appointment of the individual is revised.

ARTICLE IV - ELECTIONS

To be a candidate for election to the Academic Staff Assembly, an eligible academic staff member must indicate candidacy to the Elections and Balloting Committee.

Section 1 - Eligibility for Election to the Academic Staff Assembly

To be eligible for election to the Academic Staff Assembly an academic staff member must hold at least a half-time academic staff appointment for the entire academic year. An individual academic staff member may be a candidate for election to one seat only in any given election.

Section 2 - Time of Elections

Elections for all open seats of the Academic Staff Assembly shall be held according to the procedures and guidelines set forth by the Election and Balloting Committee.

- A. The nomination period for all open seats on the Academic Staff Assembly must be at least seven (7) days.
- B. The voting period for all open seats on the Academic Staff Assembly must be at least ten (10) days.
- C. Election results must be presented to the assembly at least three (3) weeks prior to the organizational meeting.
- D. Days will be defined as “calendar” days.

Section 3 - Election Questions or Disputes

The Academic Staff Assembly is empowered to determine the methods by which election questions or disputes shall be resolved, in accordance with other provisions in the Constitution and By-laws.

ARTICLE V - VOTING

Section 1 - Eligibility to Vote in Elections and/or Referendums

In order to vote in an Academic Staff Assembly election or referendum during the academic year, an individual must hold an academic staff appointment of at least .1 FTE at the time of the election or referendum.

Section 2 - Voting Process

All academic staff members eligible to vote may vote for all candidates appearing on the ballot.

Section 3 - Filling of Vacancies

If a portion of an elected term of an elected member remains to be served prior to the next regular election for the Academic Staff Assembly, the seat will be filled by the candidate receiving the next highest number of votes at the time of the most recent election, given that candidate's continued willingness to serve. In the event that more than one person received the next highest number of votes based on the ranked choice process, or that no more candidates from the most recent election remain willing to serve, the Chair of the Academic Staff Assembly shall nominate and the Academic Staff Assembly shall ratify a replacement to serve the unexpired term. The appointee will serve until the next regularly scheduled election, subject to other provisions of the Constitution and By-laws.

When filling a vacancy, after first using the criteria above, and in accordance with other provisions in the Constitution and By-laws, the Assembly will give primary consideration to candidates who have had broad representation and service on academic staff committees, specifically within any constituency represented by the vacating member.

ARTICLE VI - OFFICERS

The executive officers of the Academic Staff Assembly shall consist of a Chair, Vice-Chair, Past Chair, Communications Director, and Faculty Senate Liaison. In consideration for serving as an officer, the individual will be eligible for a stipend as outlined in Section 9, pending budget availability.

Section 1 - Election of Officers

The office of Vice Chair of the Assembly will be elected in the spring by the members of the Assembly as constituted and elected for the upcoming year. The Vice Chair shall be elected following general elections for a one-year (1) term which will begin July 1 of the same year. At that time, the Vice Chair of the previous year shall assume the office of Chair at that time, and the Chair of the previous year shall assume the office of Past Chair.

Section 2 - Terms and Duties of the Chair

The Chair may serve an unlimited number of separate terms. At the conclusion of each term, the current Chair will automatically transition to the office of Past Chair for a one-year (1) term. The current Vice Chair will automatically transition to the office of Chair for a one-year (1) term. If the incoming Chair has one (1) year of their two-year (2) term remaining, the vacancy created shall be filled by the individual who received the next highest number of votes within the constituency previously represented by the Chair. If there is no such individual, the Chair shall appoint an eligible individual to serve the remainder of the term, subject to the approval of a majority vote by the Academic Staff Assembly. The Chair shall preside at meetings of the Academic Staff Assembly and Academic Staff Executive Committee, shall serve as a member of the Chancellor's Cabinet, shall serve as the UW-Whitewater representative at the University of Wisconsin System Academic Staff Representatives meetings, and shall serve on other committees as appointed. The Chair shall secure academic staff members to serve on University- and System-Level committees and perform other duties as prescribed within the by-laws. The Chair votes only in the case of a tied vote. The Chair is not considered to hold one of the 16 elected seats of the Academic Staff Assembly, and as such, any units or groups of academic staff previously represented by the Chair during a term as Assembly Member or Vice Chair will be considered open.

Section 3 - Terms and Duties of the Vice Chair

The Vice Chair may serve an unlimited number of separate terms, but at the conclusion of each term, will automatically transition to the office of Chair for a one-year (1) term. The Vice Chair shall be elected following general elections for a one-year (1) term which will begin July 1 of the same year. The Vice Chair shall solicit and organize the staffing of all academic staff assembly standing and ad hoc committees. The Vice Chair shall serve in the absence of the Chair, serve as the Chair of the Outreach Committee, and shall serve as the chair of the Elections and Balloting Committee. The Vice Chair is a voting member of the Academic Staff Assembly.

Section 4 - Terms and Duties of the Past Chair

The Past Chair may serve an unlimited number of separate terms. The Chair of the previous year will automatically transition to the office of Past Chair for a one-year (1) term, barring resignation, disqualification, or a removal action of the sitting Academic Staff Assembly. The Past Chair shall serve in an advisory role to all of the Academic Staff Assembly, including the Chair and Vice Chair, and shall perform other duties as prescribed within the by-laws. The Past Chair is a non-voting member of the Academic Staff Assembly and does not hold one of the elected Academic Staff Assembly seats. The Past Chair shall serve as the chair of the Governing Documents Review Committee.

Section 5 - Terms and Duties of the Communications Director

The Communications Director may serve an unlimited number of separate terms. The Communications Director shall be elected in the spring by the members of the Assembly as constituted and elected for the upcoming year. The Communications Director shall be elected following general elections for a one-year (1) term which will begin July 1 of the same year. The Communications Director shall oversee the publishing of meeting announcements, meeting minutes, and any other public or internal Academic Staff Assembly communications channels. Any elected, voting member of the Academic Staff Assembly shall be eligible for election as Communications Director, and shall remain a voting member of the assembly.

UW-WHITewater ACADEMIC STAFF BY-LAWS

Section 6 - Terms and Duties of the Faculty Senate Liaison

The Faculty Senate Liaison may serve an unlimited number of separate terms. The Faculty Senate Liaison shall be elected in the spring by the members of the Assembly as constituted and elected for the upcoming year. The Faculty Senate Liaison shall be elected following general elections for a one-year (1) term which will begin July 1 of the same year. The Faculty Senate Liaison's responsibilities shall include attending Faculty Senate meetings and providing feedback and updates between the Faculty Senate and the Academic Staff Assembly. The Faculty Senate Liaison shall serve as chair of the Promotions Committee. Any elected, voting member of the Academic Staff Assembly who holds an instructional staff appointment at UW-Whitewater of at least fifty (50) percent shall be eligible for election as Faculty Senate Liaison, and shall remain a voting member of the assembly.

Section 7 - Removal from Office

The Chair, Vice Chair, and Past Chair may be removed from office upon a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Academic Staff Assembly. This removal action must be placed on the agenda at least five (5) business days prior to the next regularly scheduled Academic Staff Assembly meeting. In the event that the Vice Chair is removed, a new Vice Chair may be elected by the sitting Academic Staff Assembly. In the event that the Chair is removed, the sitting Vice Chair will transition to the office of the Chair for the remainder of the year, which will not be counted as a part of the one-year term of Chair office tenure. In the event that the Past Chair is removed, the office will remain vacant for the remainder of the year.

Section 8 – Liaisons to other Shared Governance Groups

Prior to each semester, executive officers shall determine the academic staff to serve as liaison to the other university shared governance groups, including the University Staff Council and Whitewater Student Government. In addition, executive officers shall determine the academic staff member to serve as the campus delegate to the System-wide Academic Staff Representatives Council (ASRC). (updated per ASA Resolution 2023.12.13.02)

Section 9 – Stipends for Officers

When funding is made available by the Office of the Chancellor, stipends will be provided to eligible officers, with the Chair receiving 50% of the stipend budget, the Vice Chair receiving 20%, and the Communications Director and Faculty Senate Liaison each receiving 15%. In the event that an executive committee member is not able to accept a stipend as outlined herein, the executive committee will determine how to allocate the funding by a simple majority vote in an executive committee meeting. The voting members of the executive committee shall be the five named officers (Chair, Vice-Chair, Past Chair, Faculty Senate Liaison, Communications Director). The Chair will include this vote in the Chair's Report at the next meeting of the general assembly to be reflected in the minutes. (updated per ASA Resolution 2023.12.13.03)

Section 10 – Meeting of Officers

Executive officers will meet regularly, and the time, frequency and method of meeting shall be determined by the officers.

ARTICLE VII - ASSEMBLY MEMBER DUTIES

Section 1 - General Duties

Members of the Academic Staff Assembly have the following duties:

- A. Represent their constituency and serve as a liaison between the Assembly and their constituency.
- B. Attend meetings of the Academic Staff Assembly.
- C. Serve on appropriate standing or ad hoc committees of the Academic Staff Assembly.
- D. Serve as a liaison between the committees they represent and the Academic Staff Assembly.
- E. Serve as representatives on University-wide committees including, but not limited to the following: Strategic Planning and Budget Committee, University Center Board, Sexual Assault Response Team, Memorial Committee, Planning Committee for 2008, and other special committees appointed by the Office of the Chancellor.

Section 2 - Absences

An Assembly member is expected to attend all meetings unless excused by advance notification to the Chair. Failure to provide advance notification to the Chair from two (2) consecutive Assembly meetings or four absences (excused or unexcused) within an academic year will constitute cause for removal from the Academic Staff Assembly by action of a majority vote of the Assembly.

Section 3 - Recall of an Assembly Member

An Assembly member may be recalled from office by a petition to the Academic Staff Assembly signed by two-thirds (2/3) of the academic staff members holding voting privileges.

ARTICLE VIII - MEETINGS

Section 1 - Regular Meetings

The Academic Staff Assembly meets on designated Wednesdays of each month, September through May, at a designated meeting time to be published at the beginning of each semester, when school is in session. Additional meetings may be called by any of the methods described in Article VIII, Section 2.

Section 2 - Special Meetings

A special meeting of the Academic Staff Assembly may be called at any time by one of three methods:

- A. By the Chair of the Assembly; or,
- B. By a petition of two-thirds (2/3) of the Academic Staff Assembly; or,
- C. By a petition containing signatures of twenty (20) percent of the total membership of the academic staff eligible for voting privileges. This petition shall be submitted to the Academic Staff Assembly Chair. The date of the meeting shall be set within five (5) business days of the Chair's receipt of a valid petition as described in Article VIII, Section 2C. The special meeting shall be held within ten (10) business days of receipt of the petition.

Section 3 - Open Meetings

All meetings, including committees listed herein, established formally, of the Assembly shall be open, in accordance with Wisconsin Open Meetings Laws Chapter 19, Sub V. All meetings will be announced in advance.

Section 4 - Agenda/Minutes

The agenda for Academic Staff Assembly meetings shall be established by the Executive Committee under the guidance of the Chair and shall be distributed, and posted, at least two (2) business days prior to the meeting, in accordance with Wisconsin Open Meetings Laws Chapter 19.84. Any member of the academic staff may submit an item to the Chair for inclusion on the agenda. Minutes of each meeting of the Assembly shall be recorded and distributed two (2) days prior to the next meeting.

Agendas and minutes of formally established Academic Staff Assembly Committees, listed herein, must be posted in accordance with Wis Stat 19.84. Minutes of such meetings shall be approved by the full Academic Staff Assembly within thirty (30) calendar days of the meeting, or the next available assembly meeting, whichever comes later.

Section 5 – Meetings Held Electronically

Except as otherwise provided in these bylaws, meetings of the Academic Staff Assembly may be conducted through use of internet meeting services designated by the Chair. These electronic meetings of the Academic Staff Assembly shall be subject to all rules adopted by the Academic Staff Assembly to govern them, which may include any reasonable limitations on, and requirements for, members' participation. The information to access the electronic meeting shall be published.

Section 6 – Conducting Business Over Email

If a matter cannot wait until the next scheduled meeting of the Academic Staff Assembly, business may be conducted over email.

Rules for conducting an e-mail vote:

1. The Chair, or designee, shall send out an email notice with the subject line "ASA: Motion #" and include any supporting documentation. This notice must include a specific timeframe (day, month, date, year, at time am/pm) to respond to the email with any discussion. The timeframe shall not be less than one business day. A second is not necessary for the motion to be considered.
2. Assembly members shall use "reply all" to the email motion to discuss the motion. After the noted timeframe for the motion has elapsed, the chair, or designee, shall reply all and change the "Motion" in the subject line to "ASA: Vote on Motion #". This notice must include a specific timeframe to "respond all" to the email with a vote of "I vote yes" or "I vote no" or "I abstain" as the only response.
3. After the noted timeframe for the motion has elapsed, the chair, or designee, shall tally the results. In the event of a tie, the chair shall reply all with their vote to break the tie.
4. The chair, or designee, shall reply all with the results of the vote, including whether a quorum was reached.
5. The Communications Director shall compile and maintain the complete thread of the motion and its disposition and draft the minutes.
6. The minutes shall be included on the agenda and approved at the next scheduled Academic Staff Assembly meeting.

Section 7 – Voting by Proxy

Any elected member of the Academic Staff Assembly may choose to authorize another elected member to serve as proxy by notifying the Communications Director of the Academic Staff Assembly and including the name of the authorized proxy, the applicable dates, and the scope of the proxy. No member may hold more than one (1) proxy at any given time. No proxy may be given for more than two (2) consecutive scheduled meetings of the Academic Staff Assembly.

ARTICLE IX - OPERATIONAL PROCEDURES

The following operational procedures are adopted for the Assembly:

- A. A quorum of the Assembly is defined as at least fifty-one (51) percent of the voting Academic Staff Assembly.
- B. The Assembly shall utilize Roberts' Rules of Order - Revised as its definitive source regarding parliamentary procedure.
- C. All members of the Assembly may vote, aside from the Chair, who votes in the event of a tie among members of the Assembly. The Past Chair is considered an advisor to the Academic Staff Assembly rather than a member, and as such does not vote.

CHAPTER II: GOVERNANCE STRUCTURE

ARTICLE I - STANDING COMMITTEES

During the first meeting of the Academic Staff Assembly each fall, a list of standing committees shall be presented by the Chair and reviewed for approval by the membership for continuation or a pause in duties for that year. Standing committee lists shall include the committee function, terms of office, membership makeup, and any required timeline of work. Upon completion of review by the assembly, standing committees shall be designated as active or on hold for the year. A request to update this committee status may be entertained as a motion and voted upon by the assembly at any time.

The list of standing committees for annual review shall include:

1. Elections and Balloting
3. Compensation & Professional Development
4. Promotions
6. Governing Documents Review

ARTICLE II - FUNCTION, MEMBERSHIP & TERMS OF STANDING COMMITTEES

Function and membership of standing committees of the Academic Staff Assembly shall be as described below.

Committee chairs shall be named by the Vice Chair of the Academic Staff Assembly or appointee each year following elections. Committee members are ineligible to take part in any selection/election process for an award or position for which they are nominated.

The Academic Staff Assembly shall be empowered to appoint all standing committee members and to confirm, on an annual basis, all appointments to other University-wide committees on which academic staff have representation. Standing committee terms follow the term definitions and timelines established in Chapter I, Article III, Section 3 - Term of Office, regardless of committee member's election to assembly membership.

All binding and final changes and decisions of academic staff committees, standing and ad hoc, and recommendations forwarded to the Assembly, must be approved by a quorum of the committee's membership.

All committee's listed herein, are subject to Wisconsin Open Meeting Statutes Chapter 19 Sub-Chapter V

Section 1 - Elections and Balloting Committee

Function

- Solicit candidates for election for general membership of the Academic Staff Assembly
- Conduct elections
- Tabulate election results
- Report election results to Academic Staff Assembly
- Provide Executive Board with additional results if assembly seats must be filled

Membership

- 3 or more academic staff, chaired by the Vice Chair of the Academic Staff Assembly

Section 2 – Compensation & Professional Development Committee

Function

- Solicit proposals by academic staff members for compensation priorities and funding of professional development activities when funding is available
- Establish proposal evaluation criteria
- Evaluate proposals
- Make recommendations to the Academic Staff Assembly for approval

Membership

- 5 members, at least 2 of whom have instructional status
- Members elect Co-Chairs (one instructional, one non-instructional) at the first meeting

Section 3 - Promotions Committee

Function

- Structure and administer the academic staff promotions process
- Receive and review applications for promotion
- Report recommendations to the Academic Staff Assembly
- To respect privacy of personnel matters, review of applications may occur in closed session under Wis Statute 19.85 (1)(c) considering employment, promotion, compensation or performance evaluation data of any public employee over which the governmental body has jurisdiction or exercises responsibility.

Membership

- At least 4 academic staff
- Chairperson serves as Tabulator during review process and does not vote on promotion recommendations
- Each application will have, at least three reviewers
- committee members serve as voting Promotion Reviewers
- For every 4 members of the committee, at least 3 must hold instructional status, using the following pattern:

UW-WHITEWATER ACADEMIC STAFF BY-LAWS

Committee Size	Minimum Instructional AS	Maximum AS w/o instructional status
6	5	1
8	6	2
9	7	2
10	8	2
11	9	2
12	9	3

Section 4 – Governing Documents Review Committee

Function

- Regularly review by-laws, personnel rules, constitution, and any other governing documents of the Academic Staff Assembly
- Identify, draft, and propose changes or amendments as applicable and as outlined within each document

Membership

- 3 academic staff, Chaired by the Past Chair of the Academic Staff Assembly or designee of the Chair
- At least one member must hold instructional status
- At least one member must not hold instructional status

ARTICLE III - AD HOC COMMITTEES

The Academic Staff Assembly is empowered to appoint ad hoc committees deemed appropriate to the interests of the academic staff. The function, length of term, and membership of the committee will be determined based on the charge of the committee. Ad Hoc Committees formed under this title are not considered formally established.

ARTICLE IV - COMMITTEE REPORTS

All committees under the purview of the Academic Staff Assembly, standing and ad hoc, are required to submit a written summary report to the Assembly Chair upon the conclusion of the committee's charge or by the last meeting of the Academic Staff Assembly in each academic year. The chairperson of each standing committee shall submit the report.

The report shall include, but need not be limited to, the following:

- Committee name
- Committee membership, including specific roles
- Names of participants other than committee members, where applicable.

UW-WITTEWATER ACADEMIC STAFF BY-LAWS

- Committee activity timetable including important dates relative to the committee function or charge (i.e., ballot mailing and collection dates for elections, the steps in the promotion or professional development process, when title appeals were heard, etc.).
- Brief summary of committee activities through the report period

Committee reports, as public documents, are expected to respect the confidentiality and privacy rights of academic staff members as pertains to promotion, review and other similar issues.

A summary of committee reports and budgetary expenditures shall be included in a year-end summary created by the Chair at the conclusion of the Chair's term and be shared with academic staff, UW-Whitewater leadership prior to the first meeting of the next academic year.

ARTICLE V – UNIVERSITY- AND SYSTEM-LEVEL COMMITTEES

Section 1 – Appointment of Representatives

The Chair will solicit and/or appoint individuals to represent the Academic Staff Assembly on university- or system-level committees. The Chair will inform the assembly of the committee name, charge, and the individual representative(s) appointed at least once per year.

Section 2 – Reports and Endorsements

Individuals representing the Academic Staff Assembly on a university or system-level committee shall provide periodic written or verbal updates to the Executive Board regarding their representation and activity on these committees. Representatives will make a specific request to be included on the agenda as an action item in the event that approval or endorsement by the ASA is needed on behalf of the committee.

CHAPTER III: BY-LAW REVIEW AND AMENDMENT

The by-laws of the Academic Staff Assembly shall be reviewed annually and amended, if necessary, by a majority vote of the Academic Staff Assembly. Amendments may be initiated by one of the following methods:

1. Upon the recommendation of the Academic Staff Assembly;
2. Upon a petition submitted to the Academic Staff Assembly by twenty (20) percent of the total membership of the academic staff eligible for voting privileges or by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of returned ballots from a general mailing. This petition shall be submitted to the Academic Staff Assembly.
