Music Major for a Day
Tentative Schedule

8:45 am Parking and Registration

Parking instructions will be sent to you via email. A registration table will be set up outside the Light Recital Hall located at the south entrance of the Greenhill Center of the Arts.

9:00 am Welcome and Faculty Performance; Light Recital Hall

Welcome from Interim Department Chair Dr. Glenn Hayes followed by our faculty doing what they love – performing! Our music faculty are passionate performers and teachers. Sit back, relax, and enjoy.

10:00 am Experience a College Music Course

Sit in on a sample music course of your choosing with our faculty. Your options are Theory/Aural Skills, Music History, or Class Piano.

10:30 am Group Master Class with Studio Faculty

Get to know our studio faculty! Ask them questions and get insider information on how to prepare for and perform your best audition.

11:00 am Lunch with Current Music Students

Bring a lunch, or purchase lunch at our Café in the Center of the Arts and enjoy some time getting to know our current music students. They can give you all the tips on what it's like living the life of a music major!

12 noon Ensemble Rehearsal Sit-Ins (first session)

See our ensembles in action and hear students and faculty work together in an open rehearsal. From choir to wind ensemble, jazz band and orchestra, there is an ensemble for everyone.

12:30 pm Ensemble Rehearsal Sit-Ins (second session)
