 * Courses completed at UW-Whitewater at Rock County, degrees awarded by partner institutions.

Still Deciding? You can find all of our programs at www.edu/academics/departments-and-majors.

Associate professors Tony Gulig and Josh Mabie hold an outdoor class to discuss the October chapter from Aldo Leopold's "A Sand County Almanac" on the hill near the historic cabin on the UW-Whitewater campus. Gulig and Mabie frequently combine their respective classes on Environmental History and American Environmental Literature.

The UW-Whitewater general education curriculum engages students with a common core of knowledge from multiple disciplinary perspectives to hone critical thinking, communication, life-long learning and inquiry, knowledge application, and problem-solving skills. It also:

- Serves as the foundational learning experience for students throughout their college career.
- Provides the breadth of knowledge and skills to prepare students to actively respond to changing work environments, continue to learn and grow, and interact cooperatively in diverse contexts.
- Helps students develop the skills and knowledge that are needed for success in our rapidly changing, increasingly diverse and interconnected world.

The core of the general education program is a series of five multi-disciplinary courses, each of which brings together material and perspectives from several disciplines so that students may understand a common body of knowledge and its interconnections. New freshmen complete the entire core curriculum.

Transfer students and new freshmen enrolling with 21 or more units are assigned core courses after an evaluation of their prior coursework.

CORE 110 - World of the Arts:

This course exposes students to the areas of dance, music, theatre, and visual art. Students will gain insight into the basic components of the arts, the role of art in society, and be given an historical perspective on art. Students will attend performing arts events and see work in the gallery context. Both western and non-western arts are explored.

CORE 120 - Historical Perspectives:

This course examines major trends in the economic, political and sociocultural history of the world since the nineteenth century. Students are encouraged to draw on multiple perspectives to develop a comparative framework for understanding the origins of current global issues and the changing role of the U.S. in the world. (Students select either CORE 120 or CORE 140.)

CORE 130 - Individual and Society:

This course critically examines how people influence and are affected by their social worlds from the perspectives of anthropology, psychology, sociology and women's studies. The course focuses on how we experience life as individuals and as members of cultural systems that shape our personalities, behavior and perceptions of the world.

CORE 140 - Global Perspectives:

This course introduces students to key terms, concepts, issues and relationships in economics, geography and political science. The course investigates how increasing globalization impacts issues such as the authority and competence of the nation-state, population growth and migration, economic development and trade and patterns of international cooperation and conflict. (Students select either CORE 120 or CORE 140.)

CORE 390 - World of Ideas:

This course examines themes and issues that have had a significant impact upon the world's civilizations. Readings will focus on primary texts representing major historical periods, world cultures and diverse perspectives. This course will stress critical and analytical thought, drawing upon knowledge obtained in this and earlier core courses. (Requires completion of English proficiency, all other CORE courses, and junior standing.)

Students with fewer than 24 credits and students who have yet to declare a major are advised by the Academic Advising and Exploration Center.

Students with more than 24 credits are advised by advisors within their academic college or by a faculty advisor within their major.

College Academic Services and Advising Offices

The university is organized into four academic colleges on the Whitewater campus: Arts and Communication, Business and Economics, Education and Professional Studies and Letters and Sciences. Each college has an office providing extensive academic services that can:

- Facilitate advising at Warhawks SOAR (Student Orientation, Advising and Registration)
- Assist with major change requests
- Ensure accuracy of the Academic Advising Report (AAR)
- Interpret academic policies and procedures
- Discuss co-curricular opportunities (undergraduate research, internships, study abroad)
- Assist with transfer course and transfer credit issues
- Support students on probation
- Provide information on graduate school and career opportunities

- Refer to campus resources
- Contact information for each college's academic services and advising offices is available at uww.edu/advising/college-advising-offices.

Tammy French, lecturer in communication, advises communication students during the COMM CONNECT program in the University Center.

ACADEMIC ADVISING AND EXPLORATION CENTER (AAEC)

The Academic Advising and Exploration Center (AAEC) provides advising for students who have fewer than 24 credits as well as students who have not declared a major. The AAEC advising team serves as a one-stop resource to help students with:

- Major exploration
- Course selection and registration
- Campus-wide referrals and resources
- Student success coaching
- Assistance navigating the college experience

The AAEC is also home to:

- Pathway for Success: support to students who experienced academic challenges in high school
- Academic Standards: assistance to students with their academic recovery

We encourage students to download the Navigate Student app (available on the App Store and Google Play). Through this app, students will be able to:

- Schedule a meeting with their advisor
- Explore majors that match their interests
- Find campus resources

Good academic standing:

In order to remain in good academic standing, students must have a term and UW-Whitewater cumulative GPA of 2.00 or above.

CAREER SERVICES AND ON-CAMPUS JOBS

EVALUATION OF TRANSFER CREDITS

Transferrable coursework will be posted to the Academic Advising Report (AAR) under course history.

Courses not transferrable to UW-Whitewater will not appear on the AAR.

If a student has questions or would like to appeal a transfer equivalency, contact the Office of Admissions within one year of initial enrollment at UW-Whitewater. A course syllabus may be needed to aid in examination of the course.

MILITARY CREDITS

Students who have military experience should provide an official JST, CCAF or a copy of DD 214 to be evaluated for transfer credit.

TRANSFER CREDIT AGREEMENT

Current UW-Whitewater students seeking to complete coursework elsewhere and apply toward degree requirements should complete a Transfer Credit Agreement form prior to enrolling in the course.

Family members look at new student information in front of Minneiska Springs during Admitted Student Day on campus.

CAREER SERVICES

Career Services offers a variety of resources, services and events:

- Individual career advising appointments

CAREER AND MAJOR EXPLORATION

- Resumes and cover letters
- Job and internship searches
- Interview preparation and offer negotiation
- Graduate school search and application
- Two all-majors Career Fairs hosted annually (October and February)
- Events including workshops and employer presentations
- Career preparation classes
- Free Warhawk Success Closet
- Online services at www.edu/career

ON-CAMPUS JOBS

UW-Whitewater employs approximately 2,750 students in a variety of student jobs each year. On-campus jobs offer numerous benefits, including flexible schedules, competitive wages, and valuable experience.

To find a job or internship, use Handshake at www.edu/handshake. You will receive an email when your Handshake account is ready a few days after SOAR.

CENTER FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

General management major Kayla DeRosia, left, and entrepreneurship major E.J. Manns work on math in the Mary Poppe Chrisman Success Center, the campus tutoring center.

Campus Tutorial Services, located in the Mary Poppe Chrisman Success Center, is a complimentary service designed to facilitate the learning experience for students while at the same time enhance the content knowledge/pedagogy of our C.R.L.A.-certified tutors, who are themselves students.

Campus Tutorial Services offers virtual and in-person tutoring sessions. Appointments can be scheduled using Navigate. All services are free of charge to all UW-Whitewater students.

For current offerings and schedules, including information about our math, speech and writing centers, academic coaching, and our study groups/tables services, please visit www.edu/tutorial.

HOURS OF OPERATION:

Monday-Thursday 8 a.m.-9 p.m.
Friday 8 a.m.-4 p.m.
Saturday (virtual only) 8 a.m.-3 p.m.

The Center for Students with Disabilities (CSD) is an active partner in creating an accessible community where students with disabilities have an equal opportunity to participate fully in all aspects of the educational experience. Students with disabilities are an essential part of the diversity and accessibility that defines UW-Whitewater.

WHO WE SERVE

CSD serves UW-Whitewater students on both campuses with physical, learning, sensory, psychological, health-related and/or other disabilities.

CSD currently serves over 11% of the student population.

CSD works with students, faculty, and staff to verify disabilities and identify appropriate classroom and housing accommodations.

Apply at www.edu/csd if you are seeking services for the upcoming year.

Hollyn Peterson, an art and art education major from Waukesha, incorporates self-portraiture and imagery from her experience fighting cancer for her Bachelor of Fine Arts exhibit at Crossman Gallery.

The Dean of Students Office provides services to help students succeed at UW-Whitewater.

OMBUDS SERVICES

We serve as an ombuds — or problem solving — resource. If students have a concern, question or complaint and don't know where to seek assistance, we can help or refer students to someone who can assist. Common issues we assist with:

- Instructor notification of student absence
- Medical withdrawals
- Student record checks
- Assistance with complaints about staff, faculty or other university processes

CARE TEAM

The Campus Assessment, Response and Evaluation Team (CARE Team) is a group of staff members from various departments who assist students experiencing difficulty and help ensure the safety of our campus. The CARE Team's primary objective is to connect students with the support and resources they need to be healthy and productive members of our campus community.

STUDENT CONDUCT

The behavior of UW-Whitewater students is governed by a number of codes of conduct. The Dean of Students Office coordinates the Academic Misconduct Process (UWS Chapter 14) and the Nonacademic Misconduct Process (UWS Chapter 17).

STUDENT HANDBOOK

To review federal, UW System and university policies, please refer to the Student Handbook (uww.edu/student-handbook).

REGENT POLICY DOCUMENT 4-21

In the fall of 2017, the UW System Board of Regents adopted a policy titled "Commitment to Academic Freedom and Freedom of Expression" (RPD 4-21), which reinforced the board's commitment to academic freedom and freedom of expression and set expectations for those who violate the policy.

UW-Whitewater is fully committed to the principles of free speech, freedom of expression and academic freedom, among many other important aspects of higher education. UW-Whitewater consistently promotes and supports student engagement and growth through the encouragement of civil discourse, open discussion, campus forums and guest speakers. We believe that freedom of expression should be protected and encouraged in a manner that promotes engagement and conversation in accordance with the First Amendment of the U.S. Constitution to the fullest degree and without unnecessary constraint or fear of institutional discipline.

This policy sets forth certain rights, protections and responsibilities for our campus community regarding academic freedom and freedom of expression. UW-Whitewater may restrict expressive activity not protected by the First Amendment of the U.S. Constitution or Article I of the Wisconsin Constitution. A few notable rights, protections and requirements, among others, are:

- Members of the campus community have the right to engage in speech and expression on campus and to assemble and engage in spontaneous expressive activity as long as such speech, expression or activity does not disrupt the functions of the university.
- Members of the campus community are free to criticize and contest the views expressed on campus as long as their actions do not materially and substantially disrupt the rights of others engaging in or listening to expressive activities.
- The First Amendment does not protect speech or expression that violates state or federal law, falsely defames a specific individual, constitutes a genuine threat or discriminatory harassment, sexually harasses, or unjustifiably invades substantial privacy or confidentiality interests.

As an institution of higher learning, we are all encouraged to do our part to engage in discussions, debates and conversations with others in a way that promotes civility, growth, learning and understanding of others whose ideas, opinions and beliefs may be different from our own.

A golden fall day greets the UW-Whitewater campus.

HawkCard Office:
262-472-1437
hawkcard@uww.edu
uww.edu/hawkcard

The HawkCard Office is home to the HawkCard (ID card), an essential part of campus life. The all-in-one card provides the following uses and benefits:

- University ID card (proof of association with the university)
- Residence hall access
- Meal Plan/Dining Dollars
- Purple Points debit card for on-campus and select off-campus uses
- University library card
- Textbook rental card
- Admission to campus athletic events
- Access to Warhawk Alley
- Admission to Young Auditorium events
- UW-Whitewater Fitness Center ID
- Free smartphone app to track your meal plan, Dining Dollars, Purple Points, and other campus-related account information

The UW-Whitewater Dining Services meal plan program provides a wide variety of fresh meals to choose from all day long, AND they offer the convenience of no clean up or shopping for food. You won't have to race back to your room, trying to cook up a nutritious meal, or whether you have the cash to get a bite to eat. Another plus is eating with your friends on campus.

On-campus dining features:

- Multiple entrees per meal in each of the dining halls, including vegetarian, a variety of home-style dishes, and international flair
- 15+ campus locations to choose from with a variety of choices at each location
- Personal advice from the campus dietitian if desired
- Special diets
- Sick meal kits

MEAL PLAN OPTIONS

The weekly meal plan is the most economical option. Choose from 10, 14, 19, or 24 meals per week, plus a choice of add-on Dining Dollars. Dining Dollars provide extra flexibility for discounted purchases at any campus dining location.

All prices listed are subject to change based on approval of the 2024-25 rates. Visit the HawkCard Office website for most up-to-date information.

Meals per week, price per semester	Add-on Dining Dollars per semester
	$50	$100
10 meals ($1,384)	$1,434	$1,484
14 meals ($1,410*)	$1,460	$1,510
19 meals ($1,444)	$1,494	$1,544
24 meals ($1,480)	$1,530	$1,580

*The most popular meal plan

Other meal plan options include the Dining Dollar meal plan (per semester), and the MyMeals plan for juniors, seniors, graduate students and students living off-campus or not required to have a meal plan.

Students enjoy a meal at Drumlin Hall on the UW-Whitewater campus.

THE CENTER FOR GLOBAL EDUCATION

The Financial Aid Office is located in Hyer Hall, across from Andersen Library, on the south side of campus.

The Financial Aid Office's mission is to provide students with the information needed to secure funding for their college education. Through guidance and support, we strive to help students remove financial obstacles so that all may achieve their academic goals.

- Financial aid starts with completing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid at StudentAid.gov. UW-Whitewater's code is 003926. The FAFSA opens every year on Oct. 1 and needs to be completed each year.
- Once you have completed the FAFSA, be sure to fully process your financial aid by following the steps at uww.edu/financialaid/process/notification.
- To help estimate your costs before you receive your bill, please visit cost.uww.edu.
- For additional financial aid details, please visit uww.edu/financialaid.

The Center for Global Education Fair on the north mall near the University Center offers information on study abroad opportunities through the UW-Whitewater Office of Global Experiences.

WHY STUDY ABROAD? Studies show that living and studying in another culture will accelerate the learning you do in college.

- Develop valuable professional skills by learning to problem solve and navigate differences
- Grow personally, professionally and academically
- Develop new perspectives of the world and of yourself

The Center for Global Education offers more than a hundred programs to meet almost any need or interest. Programs last from two weeks to 10 months, and we have semester programs with costs similar to a semester on campus. Stop in to talk to a peer advisor about how to make study abroad work for you.

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY SERVICES

The mission of First Year Experience (FYE) is to provide guidance to students and their families in their transition to the campus community. We serve as a resource that provides engaging, inclusive and academically integrated transitional experiences to enhance student development.

We provide the following programs/services:

- Warhawks SOAR (Student Orientation, Advising and Registration)
- Warhawk Welcome
- New Student Seminar (INTRAUNV 104)
- Learning Communities
- Peer Mentor Program
- Outstanding Freshman and New Transfer Student Awards
- Under Our Wing
- Family programs: the calendar, Family Fest, the Warhawk Family Newsletter, and the Warhawk Family Connections Facebook group

As the crowning activity of Warhawk Welcome, new Warhawks are welcomed at the RU Purple Rally at Perkins Stadium, where they are cheered on by Warhawk athletes and treated to performances by the UW-Whitewater Marching Band, Cheer and Stunt Team and dance teams.

IT Services provides high-quality customer service and expertise on more than 50 campus technology services critical to student success and university operations.

- Located in Andersen 2000 and equipped with various resources, our technicians provide in-person and virtual support. Get connected with them at uww.edu/helpdesk.
- The Student Technology Guide at uww.edu/its/new-to-campus is your go-to resource for details on commonly used technology services to support your success.
- Jumpstart your proficiency with university technology with TechQuest, an online orientation accessed by registering at go.uww.edu/techquest.
- Follow us @uwwits on Instagram or Facebook for updates and technology tips and tricks from fellow students.

POLICE DEPARTMENT

The James R. Connor University Center (UC) is the heart of the UW-Whitewater campus, providing opportunities for students to enhance their college experience through a wide variety of activities and services.

The UC is home to the First Year Experience Office, HawkCard Office, UC Live, Information Services, Warhawk Alley, Roberta's Art Gallery, UC Building Operations, Student Activities and Involvement, the Warhawk Connection Center, and numerous lounges and dining locations. The UC also oversees the Warhawk Pantry in Drumlin Hall.

Looking for a job on campus? The UC has over 40 different jobs available to students and hires over 100 student employees. Our positions offer student-centered supervisors, flexible schedules, and raises and advancement.

Whatever your need, the UC is here to Get U Connected!

The University Police Department provides 24-hour, year-round protection and prevention services, staffed by sworn officers. Maintaining a safe community to enhance the educational mission of the university is our top priority. The department provides personal services and professional investigation while encouraging our community to assist in ensuring their safety. Handling the casual violator with compassion while not overlooking crime is a hallmark of our efforts. Providing opportunities to change behaviors is the basis of our philosophy.

The department also employs a group of unsworn students within the Campus Service Officer program. With their assistance, the department provides safety escorts, vehicle unlock services and battery jump-starts.

REGISTRAR'S OFFICE

262-472-1570
registrar@uww.edu
uww.edu/registrar

The Registrar's Office supports the campus community through the following services: catalog, course schedule, registration, registration deadlines, transcripts, enrollment verifications, veteran benefit services, and the administration of university, UW System, state and federal academic policies, including FERPA. Official transcript ordering, catalog, registration deadlines, graduation/commencement information, veteran's services, and policy information are located on the Registrar's Office website.

The student portal in WINS offers:

- Printable enrollment verifications
- The schedule of classes, registration, deadlines, grades and unofficial transcripts
- A place where students can confirm and update contact information, enter a preferred name, select personal pronouns, apply for graduation, and see notifications

FERPA is a federal law designed to protect the privacy of educational records. Student rights protected under FERPA are: (1) the right to inspect and review your education record; (2) the right to request an amendment to your education record; (3) the right to provide written consent; and (4) the right to file a complaint. Under FERPA, the following directory information may be made public, unless the student requests to withhold all of this information: The student's name, address, email address, telephone number (excluding cell), dates of attendance and graduation, enrollment status, program of study (college, major and minor), classification, previous institutions attended, degrees, honors and awards received, and participation in officially recognized activities and sports.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES AND INVOLVEMENT

262-472-6217
involvement@uww.edu
uww.edu/getinvolved

Student Activities and Involvement staff partner with students to cultivate culture and connection for an active experience as a Warhawk and beyond. Through developing the individual and fostering community, students learn and practice skills and behaviors to be exceptional professionals who lead.

Students who are involved can explore interests and skills, as well as the campus and world around them. Ultimately, getting involved is a critical step in preparing for future employment and personal success.

Student interns and staff help Warhawks connect to these and other opportunities:

- More than 170 student organizations and clubs
- 3,000+ campus jobs
- 20+ fraternity and sorority chapters
- More than 150 cultural, educational and social events

UNIVERSITY BOOKSTORE AND TEXTBOOK RENTAL

The University Bookstore is the official campus store for all Warhawk apparel, supplies, gifts, technology, products and graduation regalia. Open year-round in-store and online, we support our Warhawk community from the first campus tour to graduation and beyond.

Textbook Rental provides the main course textbooks, courseware, and ebooks for students enrolled in undergraduate courses. The rental system, which is part of an undergraduate's tuition and fees, significantly reduces the impact of textbook expenses on a student's overall college costs. Textbooks are available two weeks before the start of the term and due the final day of the term.

The UWW Custom Shop creates custom apparel for student, faculty and groups at UW-Whitewater.

We can bring your creative ideas to life and offer inclusive sizing options (small-5XL).

TITLE IX

262-472-2143
titleix@uww.edu
www.edu/sexual-misconduct-information

The University of Wisconsin-Whitewater is committed to maintaining a community environment. Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex in education programs or activities. Sexual violence and sexual harassment includes sexual assault, sexual exploitation, stalking, dating and domestic violence, and discrimination based on pregnancy status.

UW-Whitewater is committed to educating its community and to promptly and effectively responding to and redressing conduct that violates the Sexual Violence and Sexual Harassment Policy. We also provide the UW-Whitewater community with information and resources to identify, report, and respond to sexual violence and sexual harassment.

If you or someone you know would like to learn more about resources and options available to students, please contact the Title IX Coordinator. You can also fill out the Sexual Misconduct/Title IX Reporting form found on the website.

The Undergraduate Research Program (URP) is a high-impact practice that gives students the opportunity to apply their knowledge outside of the classroom and dive deeper into their field of interest. URP offers a variety of programs aimed to connect students from all disciplines and majors with faculty mentors and provide them with enriching research opportunities. URP facilitates enriching research experiences by providing grants, research fellowships, and travel support to undergraduate students and faculty mentors.

UNIVERSITY LIBRARIES

The library provides high-quality collections and services in support of research and student success on both the Whitewater and Rock County campuses.

We have options for collaborative group work and quiet study spaces. And when you are ready for a break, we host a variety of events including weekly pet therapy to help you unwind.

- Need help with research? We have librarians for every department and college, with in-person, email, text, 24/7 chat, and telephone assistance.
- Want to research from your room? You'll find 24/7 access to library article databases, e-journals and e-books.

UW-Whitewater is home to a nationally known and successful athletic department. The Warhawks have won team national championships in volleyball, men's basketball, golf, baseball, gymnastics and football. The athletic department has some of the best facilities in NCAA Division III and hold the attendance record for games played on a college campus at 20,113. Warhawks student-athletes train in the Williams Center, a state-of-the-art athletic facility that includes several competition and practice spaces as well as a 10,500-square-foot weight room and cardio center. Students receive free admission to all regular-season home sporting events with their HawkCard.

WARHAWK CONNECTION CENTER

262-472-6217
wcc@uww.edu
www.edu/uc/get-involved/warhawk-connection-center

The Warhawk Connection Center, or WCC, is UW-Whitewater's intersectional student center. The WCC was named by students, for students, and serves as a space for all to establish a true sense of belonging and community between all Warhawks.

In addition to being a space for students to collaborate, connect, relax or study, the WCC is home to weekly programs and workshops that enhance awareness and intercultural competence, promote emotional, mental and physical wellness, and fosters community through civil discourse. It is also a space where Warhawks can connect and make Whitewater feel like home.

Check out our four major types of programming/events — Fireside Chats, Wellness Programs, Warhawk Development Programs, and Day in the Life/Intersectional Enrichment Programs — at www.uww.edu/uc/get-involved/warhawk-connection-center.

Aaron Broadwater, a program specialist for development, leads an information session to kick off the semester for representatives of the identity student organizations housed in the Warhawk Connection Center.

Sometimes it may seem that college terminology is a different language. Here is a list of important terms.

AAR/Degree Audit

Academic Advising Report: A degree progress report that indicates requirements completed as well as those needing to be completed. This document matches your academic history against the program requirements of your major and/or minor.

Class number

A unique four-digit number assigned to each course/section listed in the schedule of classes. It is the number used in the registration system to identify the course in adding, dropping or changing the grade basis.

Combined GPA

The average obtained by combining the UW-Whitewater GPA with the GPA received from any other higher education institution.

Co-req

Co-requisite: A course that must be completed prior to or during the same term as another course. For example, Biology 120 has a co-req of Math 141.

Credit/Unit

The terms "credit" and "unit" can be used interchangeably. Typically, courses are 3 credits. As a general rule, a 3-credit course meets for 3 hours in the classroom each week.

Cumulative GPA

The average obtained by dividing the total number of grade points earned by the total number of units attempted.

Emphasis

An approved set of courses within a major that defines a specialty area or specific field of study. For example, advertising is an emphasis within the journalism major.

Good academic standing

In order to remain in good standing at UW-Whitewater, students must have a cumulative GPA of 2.00 or above. Some colleges and/or programs may require a combined UW-Whitewater GPA above 2.00 in order to remain in good academic standing.

Hold

A registration hold is any restriction that prevents registration. Holds can be placed on your account by various departments on campus. Many students will have an academic advising hold placed on their records; this hold is released only after completing an advising appointment. Other examples of holds include financial services and documentation. Holds can prevent you from enrolling in courses for the next term as well as prevent the release of official transcripts.

Pre-req

Pre-requisite: Requirements that need to be met before taking a particular course. For example, English 101 is a pre-req of English 102.

Registration

The act of enrolling in classes. This involves choosing classes with the help of an advisor and submitting the course requests in your WINS account.

Satisfactory/No credit

A grade of "S" (satisfactory) will be earned if the student completes the class with the equivalent of a grade of "C" or better. A grade of "NC" will be earned if the student completes the class with the equivalent of a "C-" grade or less. Neither the "S" nor the "NC" will be included in the student's GPA. Students may take up to 15 units of satisfactory/no credit classes. Major/Minor classes cannot be taken as satisfactory/no credit. Students can only register for a class as satisfactory/no credit if the class is offered with a grading basis of "Student Option."

Section number

A number used to distinguish one class from another. One course may offer several classes or sections at various times throughout the day or week. Sections that include the letter "X" or "H" are reserved sections for select populations of students such as Learning Communities or Honors and not available to all students. Example: English 101 Section 6.

Subject

The area or department of the course. For example, English 101 has a subject of ENGLISH.

Un-req

Un-requisite: Equivalent courses whose content overlaps with one another. For example, if a student took Sociology 270, credit cannot be earned for African American Studies 270 because the courses are so similar.

Waiver

A waiver means that the student does not have to take a course; the requirement has been met with the waiver. A waiver does not result in the awarding of credit.

WINS

Whitewater Information Network for Students: WINS is your student portal where you will register for classes, check financial records, view your AAR, etc.

NEW STUDENT CHECKLIST

Required Training Before the Semester

- Complete the sexual assault prevention online training. Your personalized link will be emailed a couple of weeks before the semester begins to your UW-Whitewater account.
