

MASTER OF SCIENCE IN COMMUNICATION SCIENCES & DISORDERS

“The program’s greatest strengths are the small class size and number of practicum experiences. The wide variety of clinical experiences that were offered to students and the small class sizes created a wonderful learning environment!” MS COMDIS Graduate

The Master of Science (M.S.) Degree in Communication Sciences and Disorders from the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater prepares students to become speech-language pathology professionals who:

- assess, diagnose, and treat clients of diverse cultural and linguistic backgrounds
- practice across the lifespan and across all settings
- act as a resource for the University and community by serving as consultants, facilitators, and authorities in the various areas of communication disorders

The Master of Science (M.S.) education program in speech language pathology at the University of Wisconsin Whitewater is accredited by the Council on Academic Accreditation in Audiology and Speech-Language Pathology of the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association, 2200 Research Boulevard, #310, Rockville, MD 20850, 800-498-2071 or 301-296-5700.

“I feel as though I had a strong connection with not only my student cohort but also faculty. I am extremely grateful for the number of clinical hours I was able to experience before graduating.” MS COMDIS Graduate
